

celebs

Elisabeth Moss

Important to surround yourself with people you trust: Elisabeth Moss

Los Angeles

The Handmaid's Tale star Elisabeth Moss believes the only way for her to cope with fame is by surrounding herself with people she trusts the most.

In an interview with OK! magazine, the 36-year-old actor said her family and friends keep her grounded.

"I surround myself with people that I love and trust. That's usually my family or friends. Friends that I've had for years. Obviously I love my family but I rely on my friends too.

I think it's important to surround yourself with people who support you and whose opinions you can really trust are for the greater good," Moss said.

The "Mad Men" alum said the major "turning point" in her career came when she was cast as the daughter of President Josiah Bartlet in the NBC political drama series "The West Wing".

"I've been doing this for 30 years. It's a long time there's never really one turning point, but there are many little steps that go into a career," Moss said.

Ryan Reynolds gets a surprise visit by wife Blake Lively in Boston

Los Angeles

Canadian actor Ryan Reynolds who is busy filming his upcoming film 'Free Guy' in Boston got a surprise visit by his pregnant wife Blake Lively.

The pregnant actor-- who is expecting the couple's third child-- was seen dressed in a short-sleeved dress and white sneakers as she gave her leading man a hug.

The 42-year-old actor shared the sweet moment on his Instagram story and wrote, "Great Scott!"

Blake was previously snapped in Boston last month, where she was seen wearing a casual grey T-shirt that showed off her growing baby bump.

Earlier on Saturday, Reynolds posted a picture of himself and his co-stars in front of the Boston Flower Exchange and wrote, "The first day working with [Stranger Things actor] Joe Keery and [Pitch Perfect actor] Utkarsh Ambudkar. My arms feel so safe, draped loosely across their powerful shoulders."

Apart from Reynolds, Keery, and Ambudkar, the upcoming film also stars Channing Tatum and 'Killing Eve's' Jodie Comer. The action-comedy revolves around a bank teller who discovers he's a background character in a video game.

Ryan Reynolds and Blake Lively

Hugh Jackman surprises fans by serving coffee, giving autographs

Los Angeles

We all get star-struck when we get a chance to meet our favourite actors. But imagine being served a hot cup of coffee by your favourite star, wouldn't that just light up your day?

Actor Hugh Jackman surprised fans in Chicago by serving them coffee. The 50-year-old actor-singer is busy travelling around the U.S for his live performance tour of "The Man. The Music. The Show" and stopped by Chicago where he found time to sell coffee and give autographs to excited fans, reported Entertainment Weekly.

Jackman shared a couple of photos on his Instagram account on Friday that showed him offering cups of coffee from the inside of a black truck with the logo Laughing Man, which is part of his foundation 'Laughing Man Coffee Company' that he co-founded with David Steingard.

Hugh Jackman

Camila Cabello

Camila Cabello thanks team 'Senorita' in a heart-warming post

Los Angeles

As Camila Cabello released her latest steamy track 'Senorita' with Shawn Mendes after 5 years, the singer seems to be diving in the bliss.

The 'Havana' singer went on a picture sharing spree and posted a slew of pictures with the team including a special monochrome one with Mendes himself. She penned her emotions out in an Instagram post.

The post read, "Just wanna say thank you to all these talented, passionate, relentlessly hard working people who make this happen!!!! Dave Meyers, you amaze me every time we work together, Calvin Jr and Sara Biv for killing it as always and being patient with us"

Britney Spears is all smiles on vacation with mother

Los Angeles

American singer-songwriter Britney Spears looked all happy and healthy as she enjoyed some much-needed quality time with her mother after months of personal turmoil.

The 37-year-old pop star and her mother Lynne Spears recently jetted off for a mother-daughter trip to the Turks and Caicos Islands in the tropical Atlantic, reported E! News.

Britney also documented her exotic vacation on her Instagram account, posting photos and videos of her wearing bikinis, standing on the beach and taking a dip in the water.

Britney Spears

Cailee Spaeny in talks to star in 'The Craft' reboot

Los Angeles

Cailee Spaeny is in negotiations to headline the reboot version of cult hit film "The Craft".

The original, which released in 1996, follows a group of outcast teenage girls who practice witchcraft, and soon conjure up various spells and curses against those who anger them.

Spaeny, 21, who made her debut with "Counting to 1000", is best known for playing young Jane Ginsburg.

According to Variety, the reboot will be directed by Zoe Lister-Jones, who will also pen the film's script.

Doug Wick, the producer of the original, will back the new project alongside partner Lucy Fisher through their Red Wagon banner.

Columbia Pictures and Jason Blum's Blumhouse will finance the movie.

Cailee Spaeny

Kim Kardashian shares adorable selfie with daughter North West

Los Angeles

Hollywood's beauty mogul Kim Kardashian looked happier than ever in a selfie she posted with daughter North West to celebrate her sixth birthday.

According to E-News, the 'Keeping up with Kardashians' star along with husband Kanye West, hosted a party to celebrate their daughter's birthday last week with a Candy Land game-theme.

Kim shared a selfie on Ins-

Kim Kardashian and North West

tagram where she can be seen hugging and smiling with her daughter who recently turned 6. "I still can't believe my first-born baby is 6," she captioned the picture.

As soon as the American star posted the picture, several users flocked the comment section to congratulate the star.

"Now this picture I love Bc you look so natural and so real and happy In it!" wrote one user. "More pics like this!!!"

Another user wrote, "You gave that special natural look, that looks so beautiful. Amazing, the real you."

Here's when Ed Sheeran's 'Beautiful People' will be out

Los Angeles

After dropping the quirky music video of 'Cross Me', Ed Sheeran is all set to drop another track 'Beautiful People' from his upcoming album 'No. 6 Collaborations Project' on Friday.

The 'Perfect' singer also informed that the track will feature American singer Khalid.

"The next song from my new record comes out Friday, and it's great, just like @thegr8khalid who features on it. Hope you enjoy it as much as I do," Sheeran wrote on Instagram.

Ed Sheeran