

To create more promising opportunities for citizens, says HRH the Crown Prince

His Royal Highness Prince Salman holds meeting with Sameer Nass, BCCI Chairman

- The private sector plays an essential role in the economy
- The government committed to implementing programmes on schedule

TDT | Manama

HRH Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa yesterday reaffirmed commitment to further strengthening Kingdom’s development and turning challenges into achievements and quality opportunities in line with the aspirations of Bahraini citizens.

Bahrain will open up more promising opportunities for citizens, said the Crown Prince and Prime minister, highlighting the essential role of the private sector in driving growth across various economic sectors.

HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister holding a meeting with Sameer Nass of Bahrain Chamber

His Royal Highness was meeting Sameer Abdullah Nass, the Chairman of the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The government, HRH Prince Salman said, is keen to continue pushing the wheel of development and transforming challenges into achievements to achieve the aspiration of citizens.

“The government is committed to further strengthening the Kingdom’s development, turning challenges into achievements and quality opportunities, in line with the aspirations of Bahraini citizens

HRH PRINCE SALMAN BIN HAMAD AL KHALIFA

The government, HRH said, is continuing to implement its programmes as scheduled, in addition to projects within the Government Priorities Framework.

The Crown Prince and Prime Minister further emphasised the government’s commitment to continuing partnerships with the private sector in achieving the Kingdom’s wide-ranging development goals.

“This would enhance the development opportunities in various economic sectors in line with the comprehensive development process led by the His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa.”

“It is important to continue strengthening the role of the private sector as the main driver of the development process,” HRH Prince Salman told Nass.

His Royal Highness commended the role of the BCCI in promoting development in the Kingdom.

The Chairman of the BCCI thanked His Royal Highness for his commitment and supporting the private sector.

HRH Prince Salman and Sameer Nass reviewed initiatives and programmes outlined within the 2019-2022 Government Priorities Framework.

Bahrain Defence Force Commander-in-Chief, Field Marshal Shaikh Khalifa bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, yesterday paid an inspection visit to a BDF unit where he got informed on the progress of development and modernisation work in the unit. The commander-in-chief said the BDF is witnessing constant development with the latest military systems and modern technologies thanks to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, the Supreme Commander. He praised the dedicated efforts of BDF in carrying out their military tasks and urged its personnel to continue developing their efficiency and performance.

Ambassador of Bahrain to Algeria, Fouad Sadiq Al Baharna, yesterday participated, along with accredited Arab and foreign ambassadors, in the funeral for former President of Algeria, Abdelkader Bensalah. The Ambassador expressed condolences, praying to Allah the Almighty to rest his soul in peace.

Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr Abdullatif bin Rashid Al Zayani, during a meeting with the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Kazakhstan, Tileuberdi Mukhtar, on the sidelines of the 76th United Nations General Assembly in New York. They discussed ways to promote and develop bilateral ties at all levels. The ministers also reviewed several regional and international topics and issues of common interest.

Ghanem bin Fadl Al Buainain, the Minister of Consultative and Parliamentary Affairs, held a meeting yesterday with Fahad Ibrahim Al Shihabi, the President of the Bahrain Public Relations Association. The minister congratulated the association for receiving a consultative status at the United Nations Economic and Social Council.

Nicaragua

World Jewish Congress

Hungary

The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr Abdullatif bin Rashid Al-Zayani, held discussions with his Nicaraguan counterpart Denis Moncada Colinders (extreme left), President of the World Jewish Congress, Ronald Lauder (second from left), and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Hungary, Peter Szijartó (extreme right), on the sidelines of the 76th United Nations General Assembly. The meetings were at the headquarters of the Mission of Bahrain to the United Nations in New York. Discussions focused on enhancing diplomatic relations and topics of common interest. During the meeting with Lauder, the minister discussed the importance of the Abraham Accords and the opportunities it provided for promoting efforts to establish peace, stability, and prosperity in the region. The Permanent Representative of the Kingdom of Bahrain to the United Nations in New York, Ambassador Jamal Al-Ruwaie, MoFA Undersecretary for Political Affairs, Dr Shaikh Abdulla bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, Director General of Ministry Affairs, Ambassador Talal Abdulsalam Al-Ansari, were present. Separately, Dr Al Zayani yesterday held meetings with Jamaica’s Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade, Dr Kamina Johnson Smith, (bottom, left) and South African Minister of International Relations and Cooperation, Dr Naledi Pandor (below, right). Ways to expand bilateral ties, trade and investment were the focus of the talks.

Jamaica

South Africa

