

His Royal Highness Prime Minister Prince Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa has urged concerted efforts to achieve the citizens' aspirations, and ensure that they receive quality government services that appeal to them and meet their needs. HRH the Premier also praised the Bahraini citizens' great awareness and keenness to spare no effort while serving their nation in various fields. The Prime Minister made the statements as he received, at the Gudaibiya Palace yesterday, Royal Family members and officials, with whom he reviewed local issues.

His Royal Highness Prime Minister Prince Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa has stressed that there are many promising opportunities to bolster Bahraini-Thai co-operation, and increase the volume of exchanged investment across various trade and economic sectors. This came as HRH the Prime Minister received, at the Gudaibiya Palace yesterday, the Thai Ambassador to Bahrain, Thanis Na Songkhla, who introduced to him a trade delegation from the senior management of the Thai "BYK" company. HRH the Premier welcomed the visit of the Thai trade delegation to kingdom, noting that it is within the framework of the distinguished relations of friendship and co-operation in various fields.

Shura hails King's summit participation

Manama

The Shura Council expressed tremendous pride on the occasion of the participation of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa in the first Arab-European Summit held in Sharm El Sheikh, Egypt.

The summit aims to achieve the sustainable development goals (SDGs), and boost the progress and prosperity of all countries, hence Bahrain's keenness on opening cooperation and setting Arab and European strategies to surmount all the challenges, said the council.

The Shura Council affirmed that the first Arab-European Summit is held at a time all countries are collectively partnering to combat the terrorism threat working to dry up its resources, and find solutions to the issue of illegal migration.

The council praised the participating countries' keenness to boost the cooperation and create more Arab and European partnerships regarding all the issues of shared concern.

The council hoped that the outcomes and recommendations of the summit will further consolidate the security, stability and peace in the countries and will serve as the catalyst for progress and growth to achieve more prosperity in the various fields.
