Ryan Gosling in talks to star alongside Margot Robbie in live-action 'Barbie' movie

ANI | Washington

Hollywood star Ryan Gosling is currently in final negotiations to join Margot Robbie as Ken for Warner Bros.'s live-action take on 'Barbie'. According to The Hollywood Reporter, Greta Gerwig and Noah Baumbach, the duo known for their quirky and critically loved dramas, wrote the script for the long-gestating project with Gerwig set to direct. Robbie is starring as Barbie and producing the project via her LuckyChap banner alongside LuckyChap's Tom Ackerley. Mattel Films' Robbie Brenner and Paddington's David Heyman are also producing. Plans to adapt Barbie's story for the big screen have taken on a few iterations in recent years, but when Robbie, Gerwig and Baumbach boarded the project in 2018 and 2019, respectively, things have been full steam ahead.

In July, Variety reported 'Barbie' was set to start production in early 2022 at WB's Leavesden Studios in London, with a planned 2023 theatrical release. Not much has been revealed about the movie's plot, but one major question has been answered with the casting of Ken. The doll most recently appeared in the 'Toy Story' franchise, voiced in 'Toy Story 3' by Michael Keaton. Gosling was offered the role in the summer but due to scheduling issues declined. When the feature project got pushed back, it allowed for an opening, as per The Hollywood Reporter. He recently wrapped production on 'The Gray Man', the big-budget Netflix action thriller from Anthony and Joe Russo. Most recently, Gosling starred as legendary astronaut Neil Armstrong in 'First Man', after playing opposite Harrison Ford in 'Blade Runner 2049'. He holds Oscar nominations for his performance in 2006's 'Half Nelson' and 2016's 'La La Land'.

Miranda Kerr: I don't think I want any more children

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Miranda Kerr isn't sure if she wants any more children. The 38-year-old model is mother to 10-year-old son Flynn, whom she has with her ex-husband Orlando Bloom, and sons Hart, three, and Myles, two, with her current spouse Evan Spiegel. And although Evan "thinks about" expanding their family further, Miranda has said she has only ever seen herself as a mother to three sons, so isn't sure if she wants any more children. Speaking to Marie Claire Australia, she said: "It's definitely something my husband thinks about. But personally, I've always wanted to have three boys in particular. "I love that I have three healthy boys — and happy boys. And I feel very blessed. But who knows what the future will hold?"

John Cena in talks to star in action-comedy film 'Freelance' from filmmaker Pierre Morel

ANI | Washington

Actor and former wrestler John Cena is currently in negotiations to star in Pierre Morel's action-comedy film 'Freelance', which Stuart Ford's AGC will be selling at the upcoming virtual American Film Market.

According to Deadline, Endurance Media's Steve Richards will produce the project alongside Sentient Entertainment's Renee Tab and Christopher Tuffin. Endurance will co-finance with AGC, while UTA and ICM would handle it domestically. 'Freelance', which is budgeted in the USD 40 million range, follows a special forces operator (Cena) who decides to retire from the Army and start a family back in the states. After several years of mortgage payments, school drop-offs, backyard barbecues and trying to conform to life in suburbia, he decides to come out of retirement to take a gig providing security for a female journalist as she interviews a cruel dictator who may or may not have ordered the attack on him and his men.

When a military coup breaks out in the middle of the interview, the three are forced to escape into the jungle where they must survive the elements, the military and one another.
