

Celebrities Grace ‘Niram 2025’ in Bahrain

The ‘Niram 2025’ cultural extravaganza, directed by Muralidharan Palliyath, was held in Manama as part of Bahrain’s National Day celebrations. Indian Ambassador Vinod K. Jacob and MP Mohamed Hussain Al Janahi graced the occasion. The event featured stellar performances by actor Kunchacko Boban, singer M.G. Sreekumar, Ramesh Pisharody, and Jewel Mary. Artists including Shikha, Rahman, and Meera Manoj also performed, making it a memorable night for the audience. Kunchacko Boban praised the event’s coordination and the massive turnout. This grand fusion of art and music provided a rich cultural experience for the expatriate community in Bahrain.

“May Your Glory Last, O Homeland”: Joint National Day Celebration Held in Bahrain

The Good Word Society and Bahrain National Society hosted a joint celebration titled “May Your Glory Last, O Homeland” to commemorate Bahrain’s National Day and the King’s accession anniversary. The event featured traditional performances, poetry, and a productive families corner, with a special focus on members from the Muharraq House for the Care of Parents. Leaders Anwar Saleh Bu Hassan and Dr. Fatima Asiri emphasized the importance of national unity and loyalty to the Kingdom’s leadership. Muna Masoud highlighted the society’s goals of fostering volunteerism and national identity among youth. The celebration served as a platform to honor Bahrain’s regional and international achievements while renewing the community’s commitment to national progress and heritage preservation.

‘Devji Voice of Bahrain’ Season 1 Concludes; Winners Announced

The first season of ‘Devji Voice of Bahrain,’ a talent hunt organized by the Indian Institute for Performing Arts (IIPA) in collaboration with the Geetanjali Music Club, concluded with a grand finale. The event, which aimed to discover the finest vocal talents in the Kingdom, saw a high level of competition across various categories. The title winners of the season are Ziad Elmoussa (Senior category), Charvi Surjith (Junior category), and Vivan Koshy (Sub-Junior category). Amira Fawzi, Arjun Raj, and Aamilah Shanavas secured the runner-up positions in their respective categories. Abhishek Devji graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and distributed trophies and attractive prizes to the winners. As part of their achievement, the title winners have been awarded an exclusive opportunity to perform on Radio Suno and will receive six months of free training at the IIPA.

Nepal Embassy in Bahrain Hosts Special Session to Mark Second World Meditation Day

The Embassy of Nepal in Bahrain marked the Second World Meditation Day with a special interactive session. Organized at the Ambassador’s Residence in collaboration with Jeevan Vigyan, the event was led by Ambassador Tirtha Raj Wagle. Instructor Raju Humagain conducted guided sessions on breathing techniques and Swajagaran meditation, followed by discussions on holistic wellness. The Ambassador highlighted Nepal’s spiritual legacy and the global significance of meditation as recognized by the UN. Attended by Nepali community leaders and embassy staff, the program aimed to promote inner health and mental well-being among the diaspora.

‘ZAN ZIBA MEET 2025’: Ecumenical Women’s Gathering Held in Bahrain

The Bahrain Mar Thoma Suvisesha Sevika Sanghom hosted ‘ZAN ZIBA MEET 2025’, an ecumenical women’s meeting at the Mar Thoma Complex, Sanad. The meeting commenced with a prayer by Very Rev. Sleeba Paul Cor Episcopa (Vicar, St. Mary’s Syrian Jacobite Church) and was presided over by Rev. Biju John, President of the Bahrain Mar Thoma Suvisesha Sevika Sanghom. Mrs. Suja Ashish, Secretary of the Sanghom, welcomed the attendees. The event was formally inaugurated by Rev. Sister Roselyn Thomas, Principal of Sacred Heart School, who also delivered an inspiring keynote address. A highlight of the meet was a psychosocial session led by Dr. Feba Percy Paul, a child psychologist from the American Mission Hospital, on the theme “What Makes Women Beautiful.” The gathering was enriched by a musical evening featuring performances by women from various ecumenical churches. Distinguished clergy members, including Rev. Fr. Jacob Thomas, Rev. Aneesh Samuel, Rev. Mathews David, Rev. Anoop Sam, and Rev. Jacob Kalluvila, graced the occasion with their presence.