Bruised Alex Marquez sets course to top Jerez practise times

AFP | Jerez de la Frontera

Alex Marquez climbed back on his bike yesterday to set a Jerez course record in a flag and fall filled final practice session for the Grand Prix of Spain.

The younger Marquez brother set a time of 1min 35.991sec on a Ducati Gresini, 0.103sec ahead of Italy's Francesco Bagnaia on a factory Ducati and 0.036 inside the course record the Italian set last year.

Italian Franco Morbidelli was third on a VR46 Ducati. Championship leader Marc Marquez was fourth on a factory Ducati.

Frenchman Fabio Quartararo, displaying the rediscovered competitiveness of his Yamaha, was fifth and the top non-Ducati.

The session had been halted after nine minutes when Alex Marquez slid out as high speed on turn five. His bike rocketed across the gravel and through an air fence, forcing stewards to wave red flags while the barrier was repaired.

After picking himself up, Marquez was ferried back on a scooter nursing his right hand.

Alex Marquez had also crashed in the morning session but still set the fastest time. He repeated the trick in the afternoon.

He returned for the final minutes of the session and quickly jumped to third before catapulting to a new record, as stewards repeatedly waved yellow warning flags.

Quartararo, Jack Miller, Ai Ogura, Raul Fernandez and Joan Mir, were among riders who crashed during the session.

Fermin Aldeguer, on the second Gresini bike, Johann Zarco on a Honda, KTM's Pedro Acosta, Fabio Di Giannantonio on a VR46 and Joan Mir on a Honda completed the top 10 who advance directly to the 12-rider final qualifying session on Saturday.

That will determine the first four rows of the grid for the evening's 12-lap sprint and Sunday's 25-lap main race.

The other 13 riders must ride in an earlier session with two places in Q2 at stake.

Marc Marquez, the six-time world champion, has dominated so far this season, taking all four poles, all four sprints and only missing out on a sweep when he fell while leading the Grand Prix of the Americas in Texas last month.

He appeared to complete the afternoon session on one set of tyres, conserving his options for later in the weekend.

Slot targets Anfield title party

Liverpool one point from title as Slot targets historic win on home turf

● A draw against Tottenham will secure Liverpool's 20th Premier League title

● Arsenal's draw delayed Liverpool's celebrations midweek

AFP | London

Arne Slot believes Liverpool have a "big responsibility" to clinch the Premier League title in front of their own fans when Tottenham visit Anfield on Sunday.

Slot's side will be crowned English champions for a record-equalling 20th time if they avoid defeat against struggling Tottenham.

Liverpool have five games left to seal the title and need just one point to do so, making it only a matter of time before they get their hands on the trophy.

The Reds' last title five years ago was slightly anti-climactic as it came during the Covid-19 pandemic, meaning Anfield was empty when the trophy was presented due to lockdown restrictions.

And, with Liverpool travelling to Chelsea for their next league game after the Tottenham clash, Slot acknowledged there is extra pressure to seal the title on home turf.

"It's a big responsibility. We are aware that the last time this club won the league was during the Covid time. So every-body is looking forward to Sunday," Slot told reporters yesterday.

"We know there's still a job to do. We need at least one point. Our fans know as well. When they come to the stadium they have to support us in the best possible way as they have done all season.

"It's a nice game to look forward to but also a responsibility we have for Sunday."

Liverpool nearly secured the title on Wednesday when Arsenal were held to a 2-2 draw by Crystal Palace, who would have wrapped up the trophy for Slot's men with a victory at the Emirates Stadium.

Slot and his players gathered to watch the Arsenal game in the hope of celebrating together.

Instead, Liverpool sit 12 points clear of Arsenal, who have just four games left, meaning Slot and company are primed to revel in an even more raucous party

This would mark Liverpool's first proper home title celebration since 1990 - their COVID-era 2020 triumph had no fans present

"Before the game, I would have been surprised if the game ended in a draw. But during the game, I wasn't because Crystal Palace again showed what this league is all about."

'This club has to win trophies'

Equalling the record of 20 English titles set by bitter rivals Manchester United will add extra verve to Liverpool fans' celebrations.

In his first season since replacing the beloved Jurgen Klopp, former Feyenoord boss Slot will become the 12th manager to win the Premier League and the first Dutchman.

Asked if he has considered the historic connotations of Liverpool's imminent triumph, Slot insisted he was focused only on Tottenham.

against Tottenham.

"It was different. Normally when you watch a game of football, you are either alone or with family or friends. But we watched it all together," Slot said.

Howe 'not 100 percent' on Newcastle return after pneumonia

Newcastle boss Eddie Howe

AFP | London

Newcastle boss Eddie Howe admitted he does not feel "100 percent" after returning to work following his serious bout of pneumonia.

Howe went into hospital on April 11 after feeling unwell for several days and missed his side's Premier League fixtures against Manchester United, Crystal Palace and Aston Villa.

The 47-year-old, who led Newcastle to their first major trophy in 56 years earlier this season, is not completely recovered but was keen to get back to work with the League Cup winners.

"I'm OK. I'm not 100 percent in my body, but I'd like to think I'm very close to 100 percent in my mind, which is the most important thing," Howe told reporters yesterday.

"I tried to take a positive from every experience, I think that's really important to try and do that, but this has been a real challenge because your health, you take for granted.

"I certainly have and when you don't have the luxury of feeling normal, it can be very difficult.

"I certainly have been through a range of emotions, but thankfully I feel like I'm on the road to recovery, which is the most important thing and I'm delighted to be here."

Badosa pulls out of Madrid Open with injury

AFP | London

Spanish world number nine Paula Badosa announced yesterday her withdrawal from the Madrid Open due to a persistent lower back injury.

"I wanted to let you know that unfortunately I won't be able to play Mutua Madrid Open," the former world number two announced on social media.

"I've tried to do everything possible until the last moment because you know how excited I am to play at home, but it's being a complicated injury.

"I hope to be 100 percent soon," Badosa added.
