News in brief

◆ A visiting Qatari official yesterday announced a multi-million dollar aid package for Lebanon, primarily to support the country's crumbling electricity sector. In a separate statement, the Qatar Development Fund said the package was valued at about $430 million, the majority of it to support the energy sector, adding that it would benefit some 1.5 million people. "The support includes a contribution of up to $400 million to support the energy sector," of which 10 percent would be allocated as a grant, it added. At a press conference in Beirut, Qatari state minister for foreign affairs Mohammed al-Khulaifi announced "a package of development and humanitarian projects" for Lebanon, including "a grant of $40 million to support the electricity sector". Lebanon's electricity sector has cost Lebanon more than $40 billion since the end of its 1975-1990 civil war, and successive governments have failed to reduce losses or repair crumbling infrastructure.

◆ France on Sunday took into custody the Indian captain of an oil tanker suspected of belonging to Russia's sanctions-busting "shadow fleet" for the vessel failing to fly a flag, prosecutors said. The 58-year-old captain was in charge of the tanker, the Grinch, which was seized by the French navy in the Mediterranean on Thursday and is now moored, under guard, at a southern French port near Marseille. The Marseille prosecutors' office, in charge of investigating the case, said the rest of the ship's crewmembers -- all also Indians -- were being "kept on board". The Grinch is thought to be part of a fleet of mostly old tankers used to transport Russian oil in violation of a crude price cap imposed by Western countries and the G7 over Moscow's invasion of Ukraine. Vessels in that "shadow fleet" frequently change the flags they fly, in a practice known as "flag-hopping" and sometimes sail under invalid flags, in an attempt to escape detection and tracking. The Grinch was escorted by the French navy on Saturday to the Gulf of Fos, in southern France. It was anchored about 500 metres (1,600 feet) off the town of Martigues, an AFP photographer observed on Sunday. A French navy ship and two gendarmerie patrol boats were stationed nearby. The local prefecture said nautical and air exclusion zones had been established around the anchorage site.

Investors nervous about geopolitics, tariff threats and US budgetary issues flocked to buy gold Monday, pushing the safe-haven precious metal well into record territory. The dollar sank, meanwhile, amid speculation of US-Japanese central bank coordination to support the yen. Gold climbed above $5,100 an ounce, having cracked $5,000 on Sunday, amid rising global uncertainty and turmoil set off by US President Donald Trump's policies. "It vaulted over the psychologically important 5,000 mark on a glittering streak, heading sharply higher as trade tensions emanating from the US unnerved investors," said Susannah Streeter, chief investment strategist at Wealth Club. By comparison, gold could be had for just over $2,000 an ounce only two years ago.

Silver prices have also spiked to record territory. "The relentless quest for hard assets continued amid yet more talk of tariffs and US government shutdowns," said Neil Wilson, a strategist at Saxo UK. Several US senators have said they would vote against coming government spending bills after federal agents killed a second American citizen in Minneapolis, significantly increasing the chances of a government shutdown next week. The US Fed is expected to hold interest rates steady this week despite Trump's pressure to slash them, which is seen as a threat to its independence, which has traditionally been one of the pillars of US assets' solidity. US stocks began the week firmer, with several of the so-called Magnificent Seven tech firms set to report earnings this week.

Cyprus and Bahrain enter New Strategic Phase

President Christodoulides Highlights Strengthened Ties

Tamam AbuSafi / Rashid Al-Hamer

The President of the Republic of Cyprus, Nikos Christodoulides, outlined a new era in Bahraini-Cypriot relations during a comprehensive interview with Al-Ayam, conducted during his reception of the Editor-in-Chief, Nabeel Rashid Al-Hamer, highlighting a shift from traditional friendship to a strategic partnership encompassing political coordination, economic integration, and regional security. The interview took place on the sidelines of President Christodoulides's official visit to Bahrain—his third visit to the Kingdom and the first since assuming the presidency—where he received a warm welcome from His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince and Prime Minister. The President described the hospitality and organization as a reflection of the deep trust and respect between the two nations. President Christodoulides emphasized the timing of the visit, coinciding with Bahrain's presidency of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) and Cyprus's presidency of the Council of the European Union (EU), which he said opens new opportunities for institutional and strategic cooperation between Europe and the Gulf. During the visit, Cyprus and Bahrain signed nine memoranda of understanding across key sectors, along with a joint action plan featuring more than 14 practical initiatives at bilateral and regional levels. The agreements reflect close coordination between the two countries' foreign ministries, national security advisers, and relevant agencies. The Cypriot President highlighted his country's priorities during its EU presidency in 2026, including, Resuming negotiations on the EU-GCC Free Trade Agreement, Advancing visa-free access for Bahrainis to EU countries and Strengthening energy cooperation through joint initiatives and meetings between GCC and EU energy ministers. President Christodoulides also underlined Cyprus's humanitarian and diplomatic role in the region. He cited the country's efforts during the Gaza crisis, where Cyprus acted as a platform for delivering humanitarian aid in coordination with the international community. On security, he revealed advanced coordination between the national security and intelligence services of Cyprus and Bahrain, describing it as a cornerstone of the new strategic partnership amid rising regional challenges. The President stressed that the visit holds both symbolic and substantive significance, marking the start of a practical phase of cooperation, reinforced by Bahrain's presidency of the GCC, Cyprus's EU leadership, and Bahrain's role as a non-permanent member of the UN Security Council. Regarding Cyprus's reunification, President Christodoulides reaffirmed that resolving the division of the island remains an absolute national priority, insisting that the status quo since 1974 is not a solution. He emphasized efforts to resume negotiations in line with UN Security Council resolutions, leveraging the EU presidency to foster political momentum. Finally, the interview explored economic, investment, and tourism opportunities, with the President calling on the private sector to transform agreements into tangible outcomes, signaling a shift from dialogue to action in the Bahrain-Cyprus partnership.

EU leaders join India's Republic Day parade ahead of trade deal

AFP | New Delhi, India

European Union leaders joined India's Republic Day parade as the guests of honour yesterday, a day before New Delhi and Brussels are expected to seal a long-awaited free trade agreement.

Military bands and horse and camel cavalry units paraded through capital New Delhi, while fighter jets buzzed overhead and India's latest military hardware was put on display.

"The occasion inspires us in our collective resolve to build a developed India," Prime Minister Narendra Modi said before the parade.

The fanfare also featured Indian air defence systems -- including missiles and drones -- that were deployed in the four-day conflict with arch-enemy Pakistan last year.

European Council President Antonio Costa and European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen are both in attendance, before an EU-India summit Tuesday, when the two sides are widely expected to announce a landmark free trade deal and security partnership.

They had been working on a trade agreement for over a decade before US President Donald Trump's trade tariffs pushed India and the 27-nation EU to expedite their efforts last year.

India's Prime Minister Narendra Modi, President of the European Council António Costa, President of the European Commission Ursula von der Leyen, India's President Droupadi Murmu and India's Defence Minister Rajnath Singh attend the country's 77th Republic Day parade at Kartavya Path in New Delhi

Republic Day marks the adoption of India's post-independence constitution in 1950 with the parade staged along a colonial-era boulevard that also hosts important government buildings.

The annual show is a colourful and tightly choreographed spectacle that also features floats from different Indian states to highlight the diversity of the country's 1.4 billion people.

India is on track to become the world's fourth-largest economy this year, according to International Monetary Fund projections.

Bilateral India-EU trade in goods reached 120 billion euros ($139 billion) in 2024, an increase of nearly 90 percent over the past decade, according to EU figures, with a further 60 billion euros ($69 billion) in trade in services.

The pact would be a major win for Brussels and New Delhi as both seek to open up new markets to counter US tariffs and Chinese export controls.

While the EU sees India as an important market, New Delhi sees Brussels as an important source of much-needed technology and investments to rapidly upscale its infrastructure and create millions of new jobs for its people.

US deploys aircraft carrier as Iran warns against attack

USS Abraham Lincoln dramatically boosts American firepower

● The United States backed and briefly joined Israel's 12-day war against Iran in June

AFP | Paris, France

A US naval strike group led by an aircraft carrier has deployed to Middle Eastern waters, the United States said yesterday, as Tehran warned it was ready to hit back at any American attack launched in response to a crackdown on anti-government protests.

A US-based rights group said yesterday that it had confirmed the deaths of nearly 6,000 people in the wave of protests suppressed by Iran's security forces, but emphasised the actual toll could be several times higher.

US President Donald Trump has previously threatened to step in, saying last week that Washington was sending a "massive fleet" to the region "just in case".

Abraham Lincoln carrier strike group dramatically boosts American firepower in the region.

The United States backed and briefly joined Israel's 12-day war against Iran in June, and while Trump last week appeared to step back from his threats of new military intervention, he has never ruled the option out.

The Lincoln's strike group has arrived in the region, US Central Command said in a post on X, adding the ships were "currently deployed to the Middle East to promote regional security and stability".

'Regret-inducing response'

Iran's foreign ministry warned yesterday of a "comprehensive and regret-inducing response to any aggression".

Ministry spokesman Esmail Baghaei said Iran was "confident in its own capabilities".

In apparent reference to the Lincoln, he added: "The arrival of such a battleship is not going to affect Iran's determination and seriousness to defend the Iranian nation."

Meanwhile, a new anti-US billboard has appeared in the central Enghelab Square in Tehran that appears to show an American aircraft carrier being destroyed.

"If you sow the wind, you will reap the whirlwind," its English-language caption reads.

State news agency IRNA quoted the commander of the Iranian navy Shahram Irani as saying on Monday: "Iran's naval power is not merely defensive but also acts as an anchor of stability in the region."

Rushdie warns of political violence as he recounts his attack

Park City, United States

The horrific knife attack that almost killed Salman Rushdie was an example of violence unleashed by unscrupulous political leaders, the author said Sunday, warning that "everybody's in danger now" in the increasingly febrile United States.

Speaking at the premiere of the documentary "Knife: The Attempted Murder of Salman Rushdie," the writer pointed to events unfolding across the country, where a second protester was shot dead by federal agents 24 hours earlier.

"The idea of danger and violence is close to everyone now in this country," he told AFP at the Sundance Film Festival in Park City, Utah.

"I think everybody's in danger now."

The film, directed by documentarian Alex Gibney, is the companion piece to Rushdie's "Knife," a memoir recounting the harrowing 2022 attack and its aftermath.

The British-American author was at an event in Chautauqua, New York when 24-year-old Hadi Matar leapt onto the stage and stabbed him 15 times.

Over the weekend, Persian-language TV channel Iran International, which is based outside the country, said more than 36,500 Iranians were killed by security forces from January 8 to 9, citing reports, documents and sources.

Bahrain's King's Cup returns

All eyes on Al Khaldiya chasing back-to-back glory

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

The next chapter in Bahrain's premier domestic football competition begins this Saturday, February 1, as the 2025-26 King's Cup enters its Round of 16. The Bahrain Football Association confirmed the schedule yesterday, moving the kingdom's top clubs closer to the knockout stage.

Defending champions Al Khaldiya, who lifted their second King's Cup last season under Ali Ashoor by edging past Sitra 3-2 in the April 2025 final, headline the draw. Founded in 2020, the men in yellow have quickly emerged as a dominant force in Bahraini football and now look to defend their crown under Tunisian coach Lassaad Chabbi. The club also claimed the 2021-22 title, winning a penalty shootout over East Riffa.

The action opens at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Al Khalifa Stadium, where Bahrain Club take on Al Hidd at 4:35 PM, followed by Al Shabab facing Al Malkiya

Al Khaldiya crowned King's Cup champions last season at 7:40 PM. Winners will advance to the quarter-finals, joining sides that have progressed through the preliminary rounds.

On Monday, February 2, league holders Muharraq host

Isa Town at Khalifa Sports City Stadium at 7 PM, while Manama meet Riffa at 7 PM at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Al Khalifa Stadium. Both matches promise high stakes as league form meets knockout intensity.

Tuesday, February 3, sees defending champions Al Khaldiya return to Khalifa Sports City Stadium to face Al Hala at 7 PM. At the same time, Al Ittifaq will take on Sitra at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Al Khalifa Stadium, completing the midweek fixtures.

The Round of 16 concludes on Thursday, February 5, with Al Budaiya against Al Ahli at Khalifa Sports City Stadium, and A'ali facing Al Najma at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Al Khalifa Stadium, both kicking off at 7 PM.

The draw now comes to life as clubs across Bahrain begin their pursuit of the kingdom's crown jewel. With defending champions Al Khaldiya among the contenders, the stage is set for a fiercely competitive knockout round that will determine which sides advance in the 49th edition of the King's Cup.

Bahrain Open Tennis Challenger kicks off, open to public

Captain Safeya Alhajer and Mohamed Alsayed, Tournament Director

The fifth edition of the Bahrain Open Tennis Challenger has officially begun at the Police Officers Club and will run until February 1. The tournament, open to the public, highlights Bahrain's growing reputation as a host for world-class sporting events.

Mohamed Alsayed, Tournament Director, told Daily Tribune, "Having so many international players in Bahrain is a great achievement for us. The Police Officers Club is very proud. This year, we introduced electronic line calling for the first time in Bahrain, marking a new milestone in our tournament."

Captain Safeya Alhajer, Tournament Organizer, added that "The event is open to the public and everyone is welcome. Last year, this Challenger Series was recognized as the best tournament, which was a huge accomplishment for us. Each year, we continue to improve and raise the standard."

This year's edition features six players ranked in the top 100, underlining the tournament's competitive appeal. Organizers also highlighted a new digital application that streamlines the experience for players and spectators, providing easy access to bookings, schedules, results, and ticketing through a single platform.

The fifth edition of the Bahrain Open Tennis Challenger now stands as a clear marker of the Kingdom's ambition and growing confidence on the international tennis stage. Preparations for the next edition have already begun, promising even higher standards in the years ahead.

Debutant Coutinho Stuns League Leaders

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Matchday 13 of the Nass-er Bin Hamad Premier League got underway last night with a surprise at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Al Khalifa Stadium, as Al Ahli edged league leaders Al Khaldiya 1-0 thanks to a debut goal from Joao Victor Coutinho. The Brazilian, who only joined Al Ahli a day earlier from Saudi Second Division side Al Njoom FC, struck in the 40th minute to condemn Al Khaldiya to their first defeat since Matchday 4.

The loss dents their grip on the summit (30 pts) and gives chasing Muharraq the chance to reclaim top spot on goal difference, while Al Ahli climb to seventh (15 pts) after a disciplined display.

Al Khaldiya, led by Tunisian coach Lassaad Chabbi, started brightly and thought they had taken the lead inside two minutes. A swift move involving Moroccan duo Saiffedine Bouhra and Anas Ouahim ended with Ouahim finishing from close range, but VAR ruled Bouhra marginally offside in the build-up. Moments later, Bouhra was fouled in the box by Al Hashash; the penalty was confirmed by VAR, but Joel Beya sent his effort over the bar.

Al Ahli punished that wastefulness five minutes before the break. Seconds after Abbas Al Asfoor rattled the post with a half-volley, Coutinho picked up the ball outside the box and fired a shot that deflected off Al Khaldiya captain Ahmed Bughammar and into the bottom corner, sealing a dream debut.

The second half followed a similar pattern, with Al Khaldiya pressing for an equaliser as frustration mounted. Their clearest chance came in the final two minutes when Bouhra drifted into space on the left and struck the side netting. Moments later, Ouahim, who had a frustrating game, narrowly avoided a second yellow for a stamp on Al Ahli's Fabrice Onana, but it proved inconsequential as Al Khaldiya could not find their equalizer.

Earlier at Khalifa Sports City, Budaiya and Al Malkiya played out a goalless draw, leaving Budaiya fifth on 16 points, with Al Malkiya one place above (23 pts). Matchday 13 continues tonight as Al Hidd face Bahrain Club at Shaikh Ali bin Mohammed Stadium and defending champions Muharraq host Al Shabab at Khalifa Sports City, both at 7pm.

Emery plays down Villa's title bid

AFP | London

Unai Emery insists Aston Villa will only be Premier League title contenders if they are still in the hunt with three games left.

Villa moved within four points of leaders Arsenal with a 2-0 win at Newcastle, just hours before the Gunners crashed to a surprise 3-2 home defeat to resurgent Manchester United.

Emery's third-placed side are level on points with second-placed Manchester City as the title race heats up.

Despite Villa's first victory at St James' Park since 2005, the always-cautious Emery refused to get carried away dreaming of his club's first title since 1981.

"Last week we lost against Everton and no-one asked me about contenders for the title, but now yes?" he said.

Stars ready to shine at Bapco Energies Bahrain Championship

Past winner Frittelli returns as stellar field descends on Royal Golf Club for third edition of tournament

Manama

The Bapco Energies Bahrain Championship is set to welcome a stellar field to Royal Golf Club this week as the third edition of the tournament tees off from Thursday January 29 to Sunday February 1.

Held under the patronage of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, the $2.75 million DP World Tour event features defending champion Laurie Canter, past winner Dylan Frittelli and Major champions Pádraig Harrington, Patrick Reed – fresh from his victory at the Hero Dubai Desert Classic – and Sergio Garcia among a field packed with international talent.

South Africa's Frittelli, who claimed victory when the tournament returned to the DP World Tour in 2024, is relishing the prospect of returning to a venue that holds fond memories.

"I love it," said Frittelli. "Obviously, I won the tournament two years ago. I've got fond memories of the golf course, but I really do enjoy the country as well. I stayed in the city the first year, and then last year I managed to stay on the Arabian Gulf – beautiful ocean, beautiful beach, and wonderful resort. I also love the cool aircraft flying over – some military helicopters - I'm an aviation guy, so on the golf course I'm often just staring up at those. It's a wonderful place and I can't wait to go back there."

Dylan Frittelli

Jayden Schaper

Marcel Siem

Jayden Schaper arrives in the Kingdom as the current leader of the Race to Dubai Rankings. The 24-year-old South African has enjoyed a strong start to the 2026 season and is eager to continue his momentum on a course he knows well.

"I've played there the last two years and it's a really cool place to be," said Schaper. "The golf course is just pretty cool. It's got a lot of character, and the weather conditions are always tougher when you get out there. There's a lot more slope than what we're used to, but it's a good track. The tournament is part of a big few weeks of golf across the Middle East and I'm looking forward to getting back there – Bahrain is definitely a place I'd like to get out and see a bit more of."

Germany's Marcel Siem, a six-time DP World Tour winner, is also looking forward to the return to Bahrain – the third of four events in the Middle East, as part of the Tour's International Swing.

"It's always a fantastic stretch – the Middle East stretch," said Siem. "It's easy travelling and having Bahrain the third one in a row, I'm really looking forward to it. It's a great golf course. It's most of the time quite windy there as well, a bit windier than in Dubai. The players' lounge is great, the facilities are great, the golf course itself is really fun to play. It's a risk and reward golf course, a little bit, which suits me. Really looking forward to it."

The field also includes Spain's Nacho Elvira, who won the Dubai Invitational two weeks ago, France's Julien Guerrier, and rising stars such as 2025 Sir Henry Cotton Rookie of the Year Martin Couvra and Spain's Angel Hidalgo. Three Bahraini golfers – Ahmed Alzayed, Khalifa Almaraisi and Ali Alkowari – will also compete after earning their places through the national qualifying pathway, showcasing the growth of the game in the Kingdom.

Beyond the fairways, the Championship Village transforms Royal Golf Club into a festival atmosphere for the whole family. Thrill-seekers can soar over crowds on a 100-metre zip line, while a dedicated Kids' Zone helps keep younger visitors entertained throughout the day. Live music, a traditional Bahraini souq celebrating local culture and crafts, plus a wide range of food trucks and dining options create the perfect weekend destination – whether you're a golf fan or not.

General admission to the Bapco Energies Bahrain Championship is completely free for all four days. Premium experiences including Ticket+, Ticket+ Brunch and Championship Chalet packages are also available for those seeking an elevated hospitality experience.

To register for free general admission or to purchase a premium package, please visit Platinum List.

Bahrain take first step toward Asia 2029

National basketball team aim to build on recent continental progress

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Bahrain's journey toward the 2029 FIBA Asia Cup begins this August, as the senior men's national team has been drawn into Group A for the first round of pre-qualifiers. The FIBA Asia Regional Office confirmed the draw yesterday, placing Bahrain alongside hosts the United Arab Emirates, Kuwait, Oman, and Nepal. The round-robin tournament will take place in Dubai from August 24 to September 1, 2026.

Seventeen teams from Asia and Oceania will compete across four host cities – Dubai, Atyrau, Seremban, and Ulaanbaatar – in the first stage, divided between Western and Eastern regions. The top three teams from each group will advance to the second round of pre-qualifiers, where they will be placed in Groups E and F, each comprising six teams. These fixtures are scheduled from November 23 to December 1, 2026, also in a round-robin format.

Coach Vovoras leads Bahrain during 2025 William Jones Cup campaign

The top four finishers from each second-round group will earn a spot in the 2029 FIBA

Asia Cup, joining 16 teams that automatically qualified based on their participation in the 2025 edition in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. For Bahrain, the upcoming pre-qualifiers represent a crucial step in consolidating their position in Asian basketball, offering valuable international experience and an opportunity to continue building on their recent successes.

The national team has enjoyed a period of rapid development, reflected in their highest-ever FIBA ranking: 66th in the world and 11th in Asia as of March 2025. Under coach Georgios Vovoras, Bahrain has also shown strong performances at tournaments such as the William Jones Cup and the FIBA Asia Cup 2025 qualifiers, laying a solid foundation for the challenges of multi-window international play.

With the draw confirmed and the schedule set, attention now turns to Dubai this August, where Bahrain will take the first steps in its campaign to reach the FIBA Asia Cup 2029 and further cement its growing reputation on the continental stage.

Pakistan delay final call on T20 World Cup participation

AFP | Islamabad

Pakistan cricket chief Mohsin Naqvi said yesterday a final decision on the team's participation in next month's Twenty20 World Cup will be delayed by up to a week, keeping open a possible boycott over Bangladesh's withdrawal.

Naqvi met Pakistan's Prime Minister Shahbaz Sharif yesterday to take his advice on the situation, after which a call was expected to be made, but the cricket board boss posted on X that "the final decision will be taken either on Friday or next Monday".

Describing a "productive meeting" with the premier, he said Sharif "directed that we resolve it while keeping all options on the table".

Naqvi threw the national cricket team's participation into doubt on Saturday, saying Pakistan could pull out after the International Cricket Council (ICC) replaced Bangladesh in the tournament.

Barca chief Laporta upset by impending Dro switch to PSG

AFP | Barcelona

Barcelona president Joan Laporta said that teenage talent Dro Fernandez's decision to leave the club for a planned move to Paris Saint-Germain, despite having previously agreed a new deal with the Catalan giants, was "unpleasant".

Central midfielder Dro, 18, is poised to join French giants PSG, with Spanish media reporting that they will pay Barca slightly more than his six-million-euro ($7 million) release clause as a goodwill gesture.

"We will speak when it's all done, it has been an unpleasant situation," Laporta told Catalunya Radio late on Sunday.

"It came as a surprise be-

Dro Fernandez

cause we had agreed on a different solution for when he turned 18," continued the Barca chief.

"Surprisingly, his representative told us he couldn't follow through on what we'd agreed to."

Laporta indicated that Barca would be able to "change the situation as it was presented" to them, seemingly referring to receiving up to 8.5 million euros for Dro from PSG, rather than the figure stipulated in his release clause.

Shaikh Saif on podium at prestigious ‘Dubai O Plate’ karting championship

Manama

Bahrain’s young karting prodigy, Shaikh Saif bin Hassan Al Khalifa, secured a third-place podium finish for the Kingdom of Bahrain at the prestigious Dubai O Plate Karting Championship held at the Dubai Kartdrome.

The talented 9-year-old Bahraini driver battled through an intense weekend of racing against a highly competitive international domain to claim his place on the podium. Drivers from across the globe converged on the Dubai Kartdrome with hopes of winning the coveted O Plate title.

The Dubai O Plate is a unique, one-off championship weekend designed to crown champions in a high-pressure race format. It is widely regarded as one of the most competitive karting events in the region, featuring multiple categories including Micro, Mini, Junior, Senior, and DD2, with winners earning prestigious prizes such as tickets to the Rotax MAX Challenge Grand Finals.

Based in Dubai, Shaikh Saif bin Hassan races for Xcel Motorsport, one of Europe’s most competitive teams, operating from the UAE and competing from karting through to Formula racing. He currently competes in both the ROTAX and IAME championships in the UAE and is scheduled to race in Europe later this summer.

Shaikh Saif bin Hassan said he had been training intensively with his team, Xcel Motorsport. He dedicated the podium finish to his family for their continued support, as well as to his team and coaches for their guidance and role in helping him enjoy the sport of racing. He added that while he would cherish the result, his focus would shift immediately to preparing for the next race with his team.

This podium finish further underlines Shaikh Saif bin Hassan’s growing reputation as one of Bahrain’s most promising young motorsport talents, as he continues his development on both regional and international stages.

Sinner races on, ‘gross’ pie for Keys as heatwave hits Melbourne

- Jannik Sinner advances to quarterfinals
- Madison Keys loses title defense
- Jessica Pegula wins all-American clash
- Iga Swiatek dominates to progress

AFP | Melbourne

Jannik Sinner sent an Australian Open statement in rolling into the quarter-finals yesterday but fellow champion Madison Keys was dethroned as Melbourne braced for forecast 45C heat.

Fifth seed Lorenzo Musetti battled stifling conditions to set up a last-eight showdown with Novak Djokovic and six-time major champion Iga Swiatek progressed in rampant fashion.

Two-time defending champion Sinner raced to a 6-1, 6-3, 7-6 (7/2) victory over fellow Italian and close friend Luciano Darderi.

The second seed plays the United States’ all-action eighth seed Ben Shelton after he beat Norway’s 12th-seeded Casper Ruud in four sets.

Djokovic and Sinner are on course for a blockbuster last-four showdown.

Sinner told Margaret Court Arena, where temperatures hovered around 30C in the early evening: “It was difficult to put the match away, happy I closed it in three sets.”

Sinner sent down a bumper 19 aces in the match, and said his hard work had paid off.

“Still room to improve but happy how I have come back in the new season,” he added.

In another clash between compatriots and friends, Jessica Pegula defeated title-holder Keys, 6-3, 6-4.

The Americans host a tennis podcast together, “The Player’s Box”, and had even been planning to record an episode on the eve of their match.

All that was put aside as a clinical Pegula dominated to set up a last-eight encounter with another American in fourth seed Amanda Anisimova.

Anisimova, beaten finalist at last year’s US Open and Wimbledon, cooled herself off with bags of ice before taming China’s Wang Xinyu 7-6 (7/4), 6-4.

Pegula, the sixth seed, is chasing an elusive Grand Slam title aged 31, her best performance to date reaching the US Open final in 2024.

An erratic Keys made 27 unforced errors to Pegula’s 17 and fired down six double faults as her title defence folded.

The forfeit, as a part of a jokey bet with Pegula, will be a slice of apple pie with melted cheddar cheese on top.

“A bet is a bet, so I’ll do it. I hope it’s less gross than I think it’s going to be, but we will find out,” said Keys, who described herself as proud despite defeat.

Fifth seed Elena Rybakina dismantled 21st seed Elise Mertens of Belgium 6-1, 6-3 and will play second seed Swiatek.

The Pole demolished home qualifier Maddison Inglis 6-0, 6-3 as she closes on a first Australian crown, having won all three of the other majors.

Inglis, ranked 168, was in the biggest match of her life after two-time Melbourne champion Naomi Osaka pulled out injured from their third-round meeting.

Just being in the fourth round earned Inglis a life-changing Aus$480,000 (US$330,000) -- she plans to buy a toaster and a kettle with the windfall.

Longer matches yesterday had 10-minute breaks in certain circumstances as part of measures to protect player health.

Temperatures are forecast to hit a blistering 45C on Tuesday, meaning matches are likely to be played under roofs on the three courts that have them.

In the last match of the day on Rod Laver Arena, Shelton defeated father-to-be Ruud 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4, letting out an almighty roar in victory.

Melbourne Park king Djokovic was supposed to face the 20-year-old Jakub Mensik in the night match.

But the Czech player pulled out injured on Sunday, sending 10-time champion Djokovic into

The 38-year-old Serb will play Musetti after the Italian defeated American ninth seed Taylor Fritz 6-2, 7-5, 6-4.

Djokovic has won nine of their 10 previous meetings, but Musetti said: “I feel ready to try to push him to his maximum.”
