Israel military brigade to protect West Bank wall

Ramallah

Israel has established a new special military brigade to protect its barrier in the West Bank and reconstruct several kilometres of wall in southern Jenin, with a shoot-to-kill policy against Palestinian infiltrators, senior Israeli military sources revealed this week.

The Wall Brigade started functioning two weeks ago and consists of six battalions numbering 2,100 personnel.

The budget for the new 60-kilometre-long, seven-metre-high cement wall, which will start from the south of Jenin and run along the border with the West Bank, is $100 million.

The brigade command is located in the Maccabim area near the village of Ni'lin, close to Israel's borders west of Ramallah.

Consultation and coordination

Bahrain, Saudi to boost bilateral political relations

TDT | Manama

Bahrain and Saudi Arabia discussed ways to support and strengthen bilateral political relations between the two countries.

In particular, they pushed for the continuation of political consultation and joint coordination in international forums, consular affairs and diplomatic training, in addition to discussing regional and international political developments and issues of common concern.

This came as the Political Coordination Committee of the Saudi-Bahraini Coordination Council yesterday held its second meeting.

The committee was chaired by His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, and Saudi Crown Prince, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Defense HRH Prince Mohammad bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud.

The meeting was co-chaired by Foreign Minister Dr Abdullatif bin Rashid Al Zayani and his Saudi counterpart, HRH Prince Faisal bin Farhan Al Saud.

HRH Prince Faisal expressed thanks to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa for his directives which focus on further strengthening bilateral relations between the two countries.

He noted strong cooperation and coordination at the political level.
