

BDF Marks New Milestone as Junior Staff Course Graduates

Lieutenant General Theyab bin Saqr Al Nuaimi, Chief of Staff, attended the graduation ceremony of Junior Staff Course No. 6, held at the Royal Bahraini Air Force of the Bahrain Defence Force (BDF). The ceremony included a briefing on the course, covering its theoretical curriculum as well as academic and practical training programmes. Lieutenant General Al Nuaimi presented certificates to the graduates and recognition awards to the top achievers, congratulating them on successfully completing the course requirements. Senior BDF officers attended the ceremony.

Future Legal Minds Explore Legislative Institution

TDT | Manama

The General Secretariat of the Shura Council received a group of university students undergoing training at the Legal Affairs Division of the General Directorate of Traffic at the Ministry of Interior. This visit was part of its community partnership programmes aimed at raising awareness of the legislative and oversight roles of the legislative authority.

During the visit, Legal Researcher Issa Sabt delivered a presentation introducing the students to the Shura Council's role, constitutional powers, and the mechanisms and stages of the legislative process. The presentation covered the procedures for studying and discussing draft laws, decrees by law and legislative proposals, as well as the coordination and cooperation between the Shura Council and the Council of Representatives, including their integration with the government throughout the legislative process stages.

The visit also provided the students to learn about the administrative, advisory, technical and professional functions supporting the legislative process at the General Secretariat, including how various departments support the Council's work and enhance legislative activities.

The students also toured the Council's main session hall, where they were briefed on the procedures governing session holding and management.

The General Secretariat continues to organise programmes and activities and receive delegations and educational visits as part of its efforts to strengthen community partnership and promote awareness of legislative work, particularly among young people and students.

Royal Humanitarian Foundation Receives Annual Donation from AFS

TDT | Manama

The Royal Humanitarian Foundation (RHF) received its annual contribution from Arab Financial Services (AFS), reinforcing the ongoing community partnership between the two organisations in support of humanitarian initiatives.

Acting Secretary General of the Royal Humanitarian Foundation, Engineer Ebrahim Dalhan Aldoseri, received Amira Ismail, Regional Director of Arab Financial Services – Bahrain, at the Foundation's headquarters in Seef District.

During the meeting, Aldoseri received the company's annual donation, comprising proceeds from the "A Fils Can Change a Life" initiative, along with a dedicated contribution supporting the Foundation's initiatives for 2026 and its continued efforts to serve the community.

The two sides also discussed ways to strengthen cooperation and explored opportunities for future partnerships in the humanitarian field.

The annual contribution forms part of the ongoing community partnership between the Royal Humanitarian Foundation and Arab Financial Services, reflecting AFS's commitment to supporting humanitarian initiatives and advancing corporate social responsibility.

The partnership also serves as a model of collaboration in support of orphans and widows.
