Zendaya and Tom Holland are 'planning' for the future

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Zendaya and Tom Holland are "planning for the future together."

The 26-year-old actress has been dating her 'Spider-Man: No Way Home' co-star Tom, 26, since 2021 and the pair are reportedly ready to "settle down" together.

A source told US Weekly: "They seem serious and permanent. They're both in settling-down mode and are absolutely planning for a real future together."

The Hollywood couple first met on the set of their movie 'Spider-Man: Homecoming' in 2016 - which saw Tom take on the role of the titular superhero and Zendaya play his love interest - but it wasn't until the pair were spotted kissing in 2021 that their relationship was confirmed.

Earlier this year, it was claimed that the pair had discussed marriage and children and both "want the same things" when it comes to starting a family even though the timing was not right just yet.

A source said: "Just like any other serious couple, they have talked about what their future holds, including getting married and having kids together. They both want the same things when it comes to a family. But he knows that she is not ready for that at the moment and that she is extremely focused on her career."

Tom previously explained that one of the "downsides" of fame was that he felt "robbed" of his privacy" and that any moment between the two of them is shared with the entire world.

He said: "One of the downsides of our fame is that privacy isn't really in our control anymore, and a moment that you think is between two people that love each other very much is now a moment that is shared with the entire world... We sort of felt robbed of our privacy."

I want to simplify my life, says Chris Hemsworth

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Chris Hemsworth is eager to "simplify" his life.

The 39-year-old actor was desperate for success earlier in his career, but Chris has become much more philosophical and relaxed about his work in recent years.

He shared: "In order to get into this business, there's a desperation to it. There are a lot of nos, the odds are against you, so you need to be obsessive about it. And then you get to a point of achieving those things and the obsessive nature is still there. That's when it gets a little troublesome. T h a t ' s when I think you're running past what you've thought was the dream scenario.

"I think I just want to, day by day, simplify again."

Chris has starred in a host of big-budget movies during his career, including 'Thor: Love and Thunder' and 'Men in Black 4'.

But he's now looking for a different kind of challenge in his life.

The Hollywood star - who has India, ten, and eight-year-old twins Sasha and Tristan with Elsa Pataky - told Vanity Fair magazine: "I think it's enjoyable when I'm rested and I'm prepared.

"When I've gone from one to another straight off the back of each one, then it's exhausting and you kind of forget why you're doing it. I'm excited to do things in a more limited sort of - not limited, what's the word? Curated. In a more curated way.

Ryan Reynolds wrote a Deadpool Christmas film

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Ryan Reynolds hopes to make a 'Deadpool' Christmas movie "one day".

The 46-year-old actor revealed he had worked on a festive saga about the Merc with a Mouth but the project got shelved after Disney bought 20th Century Fox, though Ryan hasn't given up hope of the project eventually being filmed at some point in the future.

He told The Big Issue magazine: "Four years ago, ['Deadpool' co-writers] Rhett Reese, Paul Wernick and I wrote a Christmas movie star-made.

"Maybe one day we'll get to make that movie. It's not a musical, but it's a full Deadpool Christmas movie. So one day."

Ryan will next be working on 'Deadpool 3', and was delighted to have Hugh Jackman agree to return as Wolverine for the film after asking him "for six straight years".

He added: "It was ultimately Hugh that said, 'I think I am ready to come back.'"

"All we had to do was sell it to (producer) Kevin Feige, which didn't take long, and the next thing you knew here we are."

Filming for 'Deadpool 3' has not yet started yet but Shawn Levy is set to direct the sequel while Rhett and Paul are to write the script.

Rhett previously told fans not to "worry" about the fear the third instalment could be Disney-fied after Disney bought its producer 20th Century Fox.

But he has added: "Now when it comes to a particular joke, if we cross a line, maybe we'll hear at some point, 'Maybe not that joke.'"

I'm insufferable to watch movies with, says Anya Taylor-Joy

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Anya Taylor-Joy thinks she's "absolutely insufferable to watch movies and television with".

The 26-year-old actress has always been able to predict plot twists in films and TV shows - but that wasn't the case with her latest movie, 'The Menu'.

Anya - who stars in the comedy-horror film alongside Ralph Fiennes and Nicholas Hoult - explained: "I am absolutely insufferable to watch movies and television with because I can always guess the line, always guess the ending, always guess the twist, and it's annoying for people.

"With this film I really couldn't and I just thought: I want to be there, I want to be a part of this unique experience and see how they pull it off."

Anya relished the experience of shooting the Mark Mylod-directed film.

She told Sky News: "One of my least favorite things in any situation is any kind of hierarchy. And my favorite sets to be a part of are the ones where your title doesn't stop at actor, you are just a creative that is there to muck in with everybody and hopefully make something much better than you ever could by yourself.

Kanye West could lose full custody of his children

IAN S | Los Angeles

on November 29.

American rapper Kanye West is being warned that he could lose full custody of his four children with Kim Kardashian, legal experts have said.

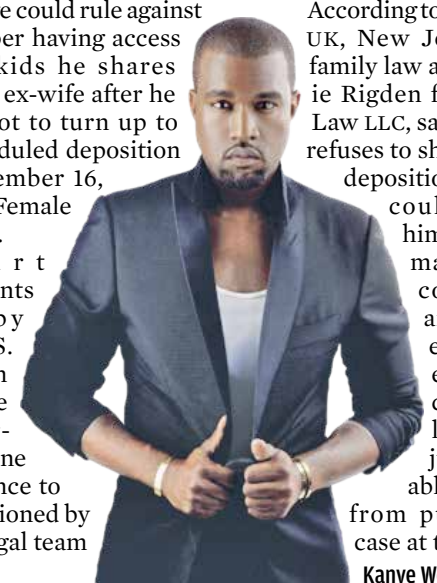

A judge could rule against the rapper having access to the kids he shares with his ex-wife after he chose not to turn up to his scheduled deposition on November 16, reports Female First UK.

Court documents seen by The U.S. Sun show the 45-year-old has one last chance to be questioned by Kim's legal team

But the outlet said that if he again does not show, it could have dire implications over his chances of custody of the children he shares with Kim - North, Saint, Chicago and Psalm.

According to Female First UK, New Jersey-based family law attorney Lexie Rigden from Rigden Law LLC, said: "If Kanye refuses to show up to his deposition, the judge could sanction him monetarily, make him pay counsel fees, and if it is an egregious enough discovery violation, the judge may be able to bar him from putting on a case at trial."
