Bahrain-Britain relations are moving toward further development and prosperity, said HH Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Representative of HM the King for Humanitarian Works and Youth Affairs. The strengthening ties, His Highness said, are the result of the vision of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and the support of HRH Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince and Prime Minister.

His Highness' remarks came during his meeting with Boris Johnson, the British Prime Minister.

HH Shaikh Nasser hailed the depth of the historical relations between the two Kingdoms that spanned over many years, which contributed to strengthening cooperation and coordination among them in various fields.

Shaikh Nasser explained that Bahrain has close cooperation with Britain in many fields, which led to cementing and bolstering stability of various fields in both countries, praising the efforts of Johnson toward maintaining ties between the two Kingdoms. During the meeting, HH Shaikh Nasser discussed with Johnson many topics and the desire to continue strengthening common areas. They also reviewed regional and international issues of common interest and the efforts made in their regard.

ILA set to organise seminar for parents of special kids

● The event will serve an opportunity for the parents to get information about the latest advancements in treatments

TDT | Manama

Indian Ladies Association (ILA) will organise an international seminar for parents of specially-abled kids on June 3, from 4 pm to 7 pm, at Jumeriah Ballroom, Crowne Plaza Hotel. The event will serve as an opportunity for the parents to get information about the latest advancements in treatments and therapies for different types of special kids.

The keynote speaker will be Dr Alok Sharma, who is the Director of NeuroGen Brain and Spine Institute, Professor and Head of Department of Neurosurgery, LTMG Hospital and LTM Medical College and Consultant Neurosurgeon at Fortis Hospital, Mumbai.

"Sneha" is a free recreation centre for children with special needs of all nationalities. It is recognized by the Ministry of Labour and Social Development and annually audited accounts are submitted to them for approval.

ILA members volunteer at the centre to teach basic life skills in order to make them self-reliant and be able to cope with their daily routines.

Sneha caters to the learning needs of children who have ADHD, Down's Syndrome, and developmental delay issues and also trains them in self-help, independent living, functional numeric and language skills, social behaviour, and art and music.

You may contact ILA at 39408722 for any queries or 39475574 to support the initiative.

Indian Ladies Association (ILA) is primarily a charitable body with over six and a half decades of hands-on community service in the Kingdom and "Sneha" is the most prestigious project of ILA.
