

Bahrain U18 basketball squad announced

The Bahrain Basketball Association named the Bahrain U-18 squad for the GCC U-18 Championship. | P12

WORLD 6 Iran says 'low' possibility of return to war with US

THE DAILY tribune

Nicholas Hwende ready to defy limits in quest for second world title at BRAVE CF 105

BUSINESS 5 Gulf Air celebrates Eid Al-Adha in Bangkok

One nation, united in faith and spirit

TDT | Manama

From packed mosques to gatherings across the Kingdom, Bahrain embraced Eid Al Adha yesterday in a powerful display of faith, unity and national solidarity led by His Majesty King Hamad bin

Isa Al Khalifa.

Senior officials, military leaders and citizens attended the Eid prayers, where sermons focused on gratitude, stability and devotion to the nation.

Delivering the Eid sermon, Shaikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Hajeri described Eid Al Adha as among the most beloved days before God and praised Bahrain's leadership for safeguarding the country's security and wellbeing. He said the occasion renews loyalty to His Majesty the King and underlined that support for legitimate leadership remains essential to preserving both religious and civic life. The preacher also commended the role of Bahrain's defence and security institutions in protecting the nation and called on citizens to unite behind their leadership out of love for their homeland.

He concluded with prayers for the King's continued health and success, and for Bahrain to remain a country of peace, prosperity and stability.

Meanwhile, members of the Bahrain National Guard gathered at the Sakhr Camp Mosque to perform Eid prayers alongside commanders and officers. The sermon there highlighted the values of brotherhood, compassion and unity embodied by Eid Al Adha and the rituals of Hajj.

National Guard personnel also extended Eid greetings to His Majesty the King, Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces, and to His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, praying for Bahrain's continued progress and prosperity.

Shaping media voice

Fast-track residency services go digital P3

220 fils (includes VAT)

PM journalism award marks 10 years

TDT | Manama

The "Prime Minister's Journalism Award" has completed 10 years since its launch in 2016, becoming one of Bahrain's leading initiatives supporting journalism and media excellence.

Over the past decade, the award has established itself as one of Bahrain's leading initiatives dedicated to recognising excellence in journalism and supporting young media talent. The initiative reflects the strong support extended to the media sector under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, whose development vision has reinforced freedom of opinion and expression while strengthening the media's role in national development.

It also highlights the continued backing of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa for Bahrain's press sector and his belief in the media's role as a partner in development, modernisation and national awareness.

Since its inception, the award has encouraged journalists to cover national developments and challenges with professionalism, objectivity and responsibility, while helping raise standards across Bahrain's media landscape.

Over the years, it has honoured distinguished journalists and media professionals whose work has strengthened the credibility and professionalism of Bahraini journalism.

The initiative also forms part of wider "Team Bahrain" efforts aimed at supporting the Kingdom's comprehensive development goals and fostering excellence in the national media sector.

P4

No licence, no trade under new market rules