England snap 15-year losing streak to win chaotic fourth Ashes Test

Tourists clinch first Test win in Australia since 2011 after two-day classic

- England win fourth Test by four wickets
- Australia dismissed for 132 in second innings
- England chases 175 for victory

A fighting England won their first Test on Australian soil in 15 years yesterday, restoring their battered pride with a gutsy four-wicket victory to clinch a chaotic fourth Ashes clash that was all over inside two days.

The pumped-up tourists dismissed Australia for 132 soon after lunch in front of a bumper 92,045 crowd at the Melbourne Cricket Ground, following the 20 wickets that tumbled on day one.

It left them chasing 175 to win, with Harry Brook unbeaten on 18 and Jamie Smith on three seeing them home for the loss of six wickets to huge roars from their travelling “Barmy Army” of fans.

Jacob Bethell contributed 40 and Zak Crawley 37.

“A good feeling, a tough tour up to now,” said England skipper Ben Stokes.

“After the build-up to the Test, a lot thrown our way, to put in a performance on the back of all that, and beat a very good Australian team, a lot of credit has to go to players, staff and management for keeping the focus on cricket.

“Very proud. We showed bravery and were courageous.”

England crashed in the first three Tests and came to Melbourne under enormous pressure amid questions about their limited preparations and allegations of excessive drinking during a mid-series beach break.

But they finally came good and will head to Sydney for the fifth and final Test brimming with confidence.

England had not won a Test in Australia since January 2011 at Sydney, losing 16 and drawing two since, and openers Crawley and Ben Duckett had a clear objective to snap the streak -- play ultra-aggressive “Bazball” style.

Duckett hit a boundary off Mitchell Starc in his first over while Crawley slammed Michael Neser for a six and a four in successive balls.

They brought up a whirlwind fifty opening partnership but next ball Duckett was bowled by a Starc yorker for 34.

Fast bowler Brydon Carse then strode to the middle as a surprise number three in place of Bethell.

But England's pinch-hitting experiment failed as Carse lasted only eight balls before skyng Jhye Richardson to Cameron Green.

Crawley fell lbw to Scott Boland after a gritty knock and Bethell was caught by Usman Khawaja from the same bowler.

Richardson trapped Joe Root lbw for 15 and Starc accounted for Ben Stokes for two, but by then only 10 runs were needed and Brook and Smith completed the job.

“It was a tricky one, a quick game,” said Australia captain Steve Smith.

“If we had got 50-60 more in both innings then things might have been different. The wicket played as expected, but once the ball softened, it didn't quite behave the way I'd hoped.

“When you see 36 wickets fall in two days, that probably tells you it did a bit more than intended,” he added of the MCG pitch.

Pitch criticised

Australia resumed on 4-0 in their second innings after an explosive opening day of searing pace saw 20 wickets fall with the hosts dismissed for 152 and England just 110.

It was the most wickets to tumble on the first day of an Ashes Test since 1909, and eclipsed the 19 on day one of the series opener in Perth.

A record 36 wickets fell in just two days of play, the most in the first two days of an Ashes Test since 1909, with former players criticizing the overly grassy MCG pitch

With 10 millimetres of grass on the track it was a bowler's dream, but a host of former greats criticised the pitch for “doing too much” and being “unfair for the batters”.

Josh Tongue came into the attack on a hat-trick after bagging the last two Australia wickets on day one, but Jake Weatherald whipped his full ball for three.

Weatherald needed a decent knock to cement his spot at the top of the order, but he failed again, bowled by Stokes for five leaving a delivery that nipped back.

Travis Head was joined by Marnus Labuschagne but he only made eight, caught by Root in the slips off Tongue.

Head was in good touch before being bowled on 46 by a peach of a delivery from Carse that beat the outside edge, and when Khawaja (0) and Alex Carey (4) departed in the space of nine balls the momentum was back with England.

Man Utd made to ‘suffer’ for Newcastle win, says Amorim

- Patrick Dorgu scores his first goal
- Squad missing key players to injury
- Victory lifts United to fifth place

AFP | London

Ruben Amorim conceded Manchester United were fortunate to beat Newcastle 1-0 on Friday but said his under-strength squad showed impressive spirit to withstand a second-half onslaught.

Missing injured captain Bruno Fernandes plus the absent Bryan Mbeumo and Amad Diallo due to the Africa Cup of Nations, Amorim was forced to adapt.

Patrick Dorgu started in an unfamiliar role on the right side of attack and the Dane scored his first United goal to secure a first home win in two months for Amorim's men.

After a promising first half, the Red Devils were forced to defend for almost the entirety of the second period.

But they held on for just a second clean sheet of the season

Manchester United's Danish defender #13 Patrick Dorgu (L) vies with Newcastle United's English midfielder #20 Lewis Hall (R)

despite Newcastle having 67 percent possession and 16 shots on goal.

“We had to suffer all together in the stadium,” said Amorim.

“We did a good first half and then the second half we just had to defend and try to do something (going forward).

“It was a good win but I had so many games here saying we played really well and didn't get the three points. Today was the opposite, we suffered together and managed to win the game.”

Victory lifts United up to fifth in the Premier League and level on points with fourth-placed Chelsea.

A top-five finish is likely to be enough to secure a place in the Champions League next year due to English sides' strong start

In an unusual tactical switch, 19-year-old Danish defender Patrick Dorgu started as a winger and scored the winning goal – his first for Manchester United – to end a dismal two-month home drought to this season's European competitions.

But Newcastle's hopes of a return to the Champions League are fading due to their miserable away form.

Eddie Howe's men sit 11th, having won just once in nine league games on the road this season.

“Second half was a lot better than the first, but we didn't do enough. We had to do more,” said Howe.

“We were very dominant in the second period and I felt if we scored we could have gone on to win the game, but it didn't happen.”
