Hilton Bahrain hosts Gergaon

Hilton Bahrain recently hosted its second consecutive Gergaon celebration in collaboration with the Down Syndrome Society, aiming to raise awareness about Down Syndrome and promote inclusivity and love for all individuals. During the event, the children from the Down Syndrome Society were treated to a night of festivities, including vibrant costumes, traditional music, and delicious sweets. The guests from Hilton Bahrain also joined in the celebrations with the children. Dressed in colorful Gergaon costumes, the children danced to traditional music, and a skilled henna artist showcased her talent through calligraphy, enhancing the joyful ambiance. Tamer Farouk, the General Manager of Hilton Bahrain, expressed his delight in collaborating with the Down Syndrome Society for such an important event. He emphasized Hilton's belief in inclusion and promoting diversity in all forms. In addition to the celebrations, the event featured artwork and merchandise created by the talented children of the Bahrain Society for Children with Behavioral and Communication Difficulties

Beyon hosts Ghabga for team members

Beyon's team members enjoyed a wonderful Ramadan Ghabga night at the Four Seasons Hotel Bahrain Bay. The annual event, hosted by Beyon to show its appreciation for its team members, was held in the hotel's iconic Ramadan tent, with its elevated décor and lively atmosphere setting the scene for an occasion to remember. The Ghabga hosted more than 600 of Beyon's team members, giving them the opportunity to socialize in a fun relaxed setting away from the office. The attendees enjoyed traditional Arabic music and five-star Middle Eastern cuisine, as well as a raffle with great prizes, which added to the excitement of the event

The Bahrain Center for Strategic, International and Energy Studies (Derasat) recently held its annual Ramadan Ghabga, titled "Sustaining Leadership and Partnership," at the Raffles Al Areen Palace. The event brought together prominent figures including officials, ambassadors, thinkers, media representatives, and Derasat's partners. Dr. Shaikh Abdullah bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Derasat, addressed the gathering. He emphasized the theme's focus on continuity and leadership, highlighting Derasat's unwavering commitment to producing high-quality research and fostering intellectual discourse within the Bahraini team. He announced the upcoming seventh "Derasat" Forum, which will be held in May alongside the Bahrain Arab Summit. This forum aims to establish the "Complex of Arab Research Centers for Sustainability and Development." The Ghabga also featured a ceremony honouring individuals who have significantly contributed to advancing sustainable development. Dr. Shaikh Abdullah presented them with awards in recognition of their efforts and impactful roles in this crucial area.
