

Muharraq housing projects

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa directed the swift implementation of housing projects in Muharraq to ensure that the city continues to serve its residents as it always has. He tasked the Governor of Muharraq with coordinating with all relevant government entities to execute the city's development projects according to the established timeline. HM the King issued the directive as he received His Excellency Salman bin Isa bin Hindi Al Mannai, Governor of Muharraq Governorate at al Safriya Palace. The meeting reviewed the latest progress on the Muharraq City Development Plan, emphasising the preservation of its historical and cultural identity. HM King Hamad underscored the keenness to preserve the historical and cultural identity of Bahrain's buildings and cities, highlighting the importance of the Muharraq City Development plan, which is advancing rapidly for the benefit of its residents. His Majesty emphasised Muharraq's historical significance, the authenticity and continuous contributions of its people, and its role in Bahrain's history across all fields and generations, noting the city's high national value and status.

Bahrain-Qatar relations

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa received His Excellency Sultan bin Ali Al Khater, Ambassador of the State of Qatar to the Kingdom of Bahrain, at Al Safriya Palace and reviewed the close relations between the two countries and means to enhance cooperation for the benefit of both peoples. HM the King thanked the Qatari Ambassador for his efforts to advance bilateral ties and follow up on the Bahrain-Qatar Causeway project, which will support economic integration, wishing him continued success. Ambassador Al Khater expressed gratitude to HM King Hamad for the commitment to enhancing the longstanding bonds between the two countries and their peoples.
