

An Honour Shared

His Excellency Dr. Ramzan bin Abdulla Al Noaimi, Minister of Information, visited The Daily Tribune headquarters, marking a shared moment of pride and partnership between Bahrain’s media institutions and the journalists who carry the nation’s story to the world.

Information Minister hails The Daily Tribune’s role in shaping Bahrain’s media voice

Engaged Reader

- Minister visits The Daily Tribune’s headquarters
- Journalistic excellence commended
- Media partnership strengthened

TDT | Manama

His Excellency Dr. Ramzan bin Abdulla Al Noaimi, Minister of Information, visited The Daily Tribune headquarters, where he met Captain Mahmood Yousif Al Mahmood, Editor-in-Chief, and P. Unnikrishnan, Chairman of the Management Board.

H.E. Dr. Al Noaimi commended the newspaper’s role in the Kingdom of Bahrain’s media landscape through its coverage of local, regional, and international affairs, and its contribution to raising public awareness and highlighting Bahrain’s achievements under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and the directives of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister.

The Information Minister noted that the presence of The Daily Tribune among Bahrain’s English-language newspapers enhances media diversity and supports the Kingdom’s ability to communicate its message at home and abroad.

H.E. toured the editorial departments, commending the professionalism of the staff and wishing the newspaper continued success.

His Excellency the Minister was accompanied in the tour by senior officials, including Abdulrahman Khalid Al Midfaa, Assistant Undersecretary for News and Regulatory Affairs; Mariam Bukamal, Development Advisor at the Ministry of Information; Shaikh Abdullah bin Abdulaziz Al Khalifa, Director of Regulatory Affairs; and Maryam Hadi, Head of Media at the Minister of Information’s Office.

H.E. Dr. Ramzan bin Abdulla Al Noaimi reads The Daily Tribune, underscoring the role of responsible journalism in advancing Bahrain’s media voice.

Ideas Shared

Editor-in-Chief Mahmood Yousif Al Mahmood presents his book to His Excellency Dr. Ramzan bin Abdulla Al Noaimi, Minister of Information, symbolising a spirit of creative exchange, mutual respect, and shared commitment to advancing Bahrain’s vibrant media and literary landscape.

Strengthened Ties

Swift Tribute

His Excellency Dr. Ramzan bin Abdulla Al Noaimi, Minister of Information (second from left), held a meeting with P. Unnikrishnan (second from right), Chairman of the Management Board of The Daily Tribune, and Editor-in-Chief Captain Mahmood Al Mahmood (left), to discuss strengthening cooperation with the national media sector and supporting the Kingdom’s vision for responsible and impactful journalism. Abdulrahman Khalid Al Midfaa, Assistant Undersecretary for News and Regulatory Affairs (right), was also present.

Upon completing his tour, The Daily Tribune team swiftly produced and presented a framed front page to H.E. Dr. Ramzan bin Abdulla Al Noaimi, featuring the group photograph captured moments earlier - a gesture reflecting journalistic agility and mutual respect.

Labour Minister Leads Fast-Track Job Drive

- Ministry extends hours for swift rollout
- Citizens placed at the heart of progress

TDT | Manama

His Excellency Yousif bin Abdulhussain Khalaf, Minister of Legal Affairs and Acting Minister of Labour, has launched an intensive drive to ensure that every registered

Bahraini job seeker receives three employment offers before the end of the year, following the directives of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister.

Swift execution

The minister said the Ministry has already begun executing the initiative in close partnership with the private sector, describing it as a major shift in employment policy that empowers citizens with greater choice and accelerates their integration into the labour market. To guarantee smooth implementation, working hours at the Ministry have been extended from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., underscoring the team’s determination to meet national targets on time.

H.E. Yousif bin Abdulhussain Khalaf

Citizens first

H.E. reaffirmed that, under the leadership of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, Bahrain continues to place its citizens at the centre of development. The minister highlighted that investing in Bahrainis’ skills and capabilities is, in essence, an investment in the Kingdom’s future and its competitiveness as a leading and attractive investment destination.

Private sector partnership

Khalaf also expressed appreciation to the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry for its strong support, noting the private sector’s positive response and cooperation in providing job opportunities to citizens. He praised the private sector’s active role within Team Bahrain, describing it as a key partner driving the Kingdom’s economic growth.

Confidence in talent

The minister emphasised his confidence in the Kingdom’s national workforce, calling Bahraini human capital a world-class national asset distinguished by competence and dedication. H.E. said the new initiative reinforces that confidence, offering citizens multiple opportunities to apply their skills and ambitions in ways that strengthen Bahrain’s competitive and sustainable economy.