

European and Arab ministers push for two-state solution
 AFP | Riyadh

European and Arab foreign ministers met in the Saudi capital yesterday to discuss how to join forces on advancing a two-state solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

"If we want to move this two-state solution forward it will not happen from the parties. I do not believe that Israel is ready to negotiate at this point, and I do not think that the US is ready to take the necessary leadership," Norwegian Foreign Minister Espen Barth Eide, one of the organisers of the meeting. "So I think an Arab-European leadership is the best we can hope for."

The meeting took place on the sidelines of a two-day World Economic Forum special meeting in Riyadh, which concluded yesterday. It was largely devoted to the grinding war in the Gaza Strip, which was triggered by Hamas's unprecedented October 7 attack on southern Israel.

Weather alert
 TDT | Manama

The Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications yesterday issued a weather advisory for the Kingdom, forecasting scattered rain showers later today.

These showers may intensify into thunderstorms by tomorrow and early Thursday, occurring at intermittent intervals and varying in intensity. The anticipated showers are anticipated to be accompanied by strong wind gusts, reaching speeds of up to 40 knots at times.

The public is urged to exercise caution and stay informed about weather updates as they unfold.

Cabinet hails journalists for noble work

The Cabinet, chaired by His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, yesterday at Gudaibiya Palace, commended local media and journalists, recognising their crucial role in promoting national development and expressing gratitude for their noble contributions to the comprehensive development goals. The King joins the international community in celebrating World Press Freedom Day, which is observed annually on May 3rd.

Truce hopes rise

Washington 'hopeful' Hamas would accept offer for ceasefire and hostage release deal

AFP | Jerusalem

Hopes rose yesterday for a long-sought truce and hostage release deal after almost seven months of war between Palestinian Hamas fighters and Israel in Gaza.

Washington's top diplomat said he was "hopeful" Hamas would accept the offer, which his British counterpart said could see the release of thousands of Palestinian prisoners.

Negotiators from Hamas were due in Egypt, a mediator in the process along with the United States and Qatar.

For months they have been trying to broker a new agreement between the combatants, the first since a one-week truce in November saw 80 Israeli hostages exchanged for 240 Palestinians held in Israeli prisons.

Diplomacy in the past few days appeared to suggest a new push to halt the fighting.

The war has brought Gaza to the brink of famine, United Nations and humanitarian aid groups say, while reducing much of the territory to rubble and raising fears of a wider regional conflict.

US Secretary of State Antony Blinken told a World Economic Forum special meeting in Riyadh that the proposal before Hamas is "extraordinarily, extraordinarily generous on the part of Israel."

He urged the group to "decide quickly", saying: "I'm hopeful that they will make the right decision."

Blinken is on his seventh visit to the region since the October

7 Hamas attack on Israel that sparked the war.

Talks "are taking place in Cairo today", said Al-Qahera News, which is linked to Egyptian intelligence services.

A senior Hamas official said Sunday the group had no "major issues" with the latest truce plan.

Speaking at the WEF meeting, Egypt's Foreign Minister Sameh Shoukry said "the proposal has taken into account the positions of both sides."

While there was no "final decision" yet, Shoukry said: "We are hopeful... I hope that all will rise to the occasion."

British Foreign Secretary

The US said yesterday it opposed the International Criminal Court's (ICC) investigation into Israel's conduct in Gaza, amid reports that Israeli officials feared the Hague-based tribunal could soon issue arrest warrants.

David Cameron told the same gathering that Hamas has been offered a "sustained 40 days' ceasefire, the release of potentially thousands of Palestinian prisoners, in return for the release of these hostages."

Saudi Foreign Minister Faisal bin Farhan, meanwhile, said a new deal would "be very, very positive... But it's absolutely necessary that any ceasefire be permanent, not temporary".

nership and ways to further relations to meet mutual aspirations. The Cabinet congratulated the Deputy Prime Minister, His Excellency Shaikh Khalid bin Abdulla Al Khalifa, on receiving the Development Pioneers Medal award from the Arab Parliament for his significant contributions to national and Arab development initiatives.

The Cabinet emphasised his well-deserved recognition, noting his professional contributions to the Kingdom's development across various national roles.

On World Press Freedom Day, the Cabinet praised the local media and journalists, acknowledging their vital role in advancing national development and expressing appreciation for their commendable contributions to the Kingdom's comprehensive development goals.

The Cabinet discussed and approved several memorandums, one of them submitted by the Government Executive Committee outlining several organisational procedures to develop the exhibitions and conferences sector.

Onward together

HRH Prince Salman: Cooperation is the basis for achievement across all areas

TDT | Manama

His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, highlighted the ongoing collaboration between members of Team Bahrain within the Executive and Legislative Authorities and institutions in the private sector and civil societies.

HRH Prince Salman noted that cooperation is the basis for achievement across all areas.

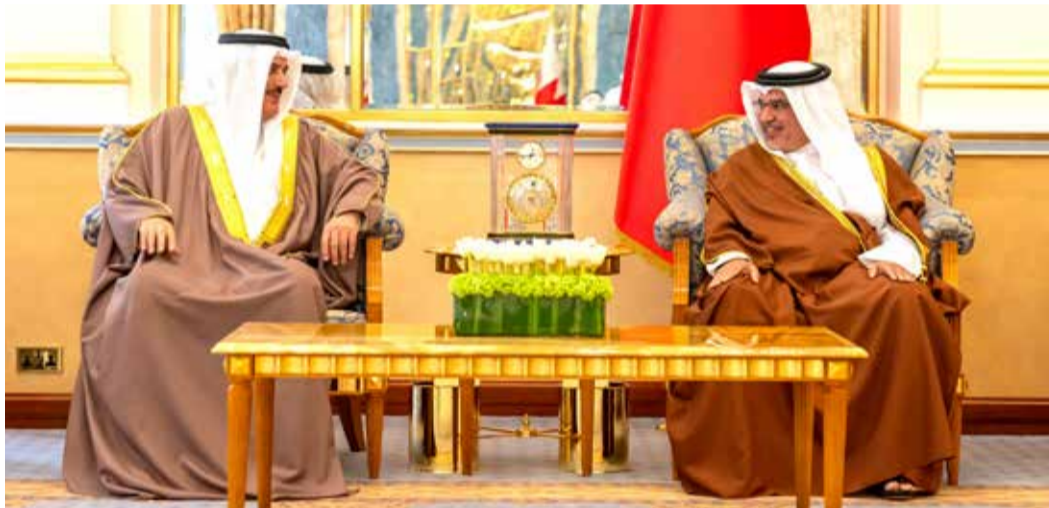

HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister was speaking as he met yesterday with the Council of Representatives Speaker, His Excellency Ahmed bin Salman Al-Musallam, and members of the Shura and Representative Council at Gudaibiya Palace.

His Royal Highness affirmed that providing quality opportunities for Bahraini citizens remains a pivotal goal of the Kingdom and that all development efforts revolve around this goal.

He underscored the Kingdom's commitment to implement a wide range of visions and plans to transform development ambitions into reality.

less ambition demonstrated by Team Bahrain and their determination for achievement.

His Royal Highness expressed pride in the successes of Bahraini citizens, which have created the foundations of the Kingdom's comprehensive development.

Appreciation

Speaker Al-Musallam and the President of the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI) extended their appreciation to HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister for his ongoing support of joint efforts between different factions of Team Bahrain.

They expressed their commitment to working toward achieving the Kingdom's wide-ranging development goals to benefit all.

The Deputy Prime Minister, H.E. Shaikh Khalid bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, the Minister of Interior, H.E. General Shaikh Rashid bin Abdullah Al Khalifa, and a number of senior officials also attended the meeting.

Issues

Regional and global issues of common interest were also discussed, as well as the latest developments in the Middle East, including the situation in the Gaza Strip.

Partnership

The Central Bank of Bahrain's Endowment Fund has entered into a partnership with the Bahrain Institute for Studies Banking and Finance (BIBF) to develop and launch a specialized training program aimed at building the capabilities of Bahraini youth in the banking and financial sector. This strategic cooperation reflects the commitment of the two institutions to developing local cadres and enhancing the business environment in the Kingdom.

Inspection campaigns

The Coast Guard continues its inspection campaigns as part of its intensive efforts to address maritime violations and ensure that sailors and fishermen adhere to the decisions regulating fishing, to preserve wildlife and fish wealth in the territorial waters of the Kingdom of Bahrain. Coast Guard patrols have carried out land and sea campaigns on the coasts of the southern region, including ensuring the validity of various types of marine licenses for small vessels, in addition to ensuring the availability of marine safety tools and their validity, and verifying the integrity of the procedures of workers on these vessels.

EWB hosts 'Run for Autism' for second consecutive year

Tourism Minister attends event aiming to raise awareness about ASD

TDT | Manama

In the presence of Minister of Tourism, Her Excellency Fatima bint Jaafar Al Sairafi, the Exhibition World Bahrain (EWB) hosted the "Run for Autism" race for the second consecutive year.

Organised together with Alia Centre for Early Intervention on Saturday, 27 April, the "Run for Autism" event aimed to raise awareness about autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and support individuals and families affected by autism within the local community.

Spanning over 105,000 square metres of total indoor space, the sporting event at EWB has been set to be a memorable and important occasion, bringing together participants of all ages and abilities for a day of unity, inclusion and advocacy.

Participants at the charity event

The event featured a variety of activations including timed runs, family-friendly walks, entertainment, and educational resources about autism.

Participants

Open to the public, the event welcomed 500 participants, including children with autism, their families and caregivers, who took part in seven categories of competitive races: Boys and girls: 4-6 years - 200M, 7-9 years - 300M, 10-12 years - 400M, 13-15 years - 600M, special needs: 7-13 years - 600M, special needs: +14 years - 800M, and ladies: +16 years - 2KM.

On the sidelines of the event, the Tourism Minister awarded the following supporting hotels: the Hilton Hotel, Jumeirah Gulf of Bahrain Resort and Spa, the K Hotel, KYRO Lounge and Restaurant, My Café Bahrain A Boutique Café, Sofitel Bahrain Zallaq Thalassa & Spa, the Art Hotel & Resort, the Westin City Centre Bahrain, the Lost Paradise of Dilmun Water Park and others.

Noble cause

The expansive concourses at EWB were an ideal space for this social gathering with a noble cause, which reflects the venue's huge potential for hosting large-scale sporting events with hundreds of guests under one roof.

In addition to the races, a storyteller event took place where individuals shared their personal experiences and stories related to autism, which helped promote understanding about autism spectrum disorder.

By hosting this event for the second consecutive time, EWB aims to foster a supportive community environment, support a meaningful cause, and make a positive social impact as part of its corporate social responsibility (CSR) goals to be an active and positive contributor to the local community.

A lesson in justice

Teacher sentenced to 15 years in prison for sexual assault on students

TDI | Manama

A public teacher who admitted to sexually assaulting students has been sentenced to 15 years in prison.

The case unfolded before the High Criminal Court, where the teacher expressed remorse for his actions and offered a sincere apology to the entire community affected by his abhorrent behavior.

During the initial hearing of the case, an experienced lawyer stood by the defendant's side, while two other lawyers appointed by the Ministry of Justice declined to represent him. As the proceedings progressed,

The defendant was referred to trial after the Public Prosecution received a report from the Police Directorate of the Northern Governorate.

The report revealed that a Bahraini public school teacher had committed acts of sexual assault against his students, with one victim being a seven-year-old child.

Offenses

These horrifying incidents had taken place outside the school campus, deepening the gravity of the offenses. Swiftly launching an investigation, the Public Prosecution interviewed the victim's father, who confirmed the defendant's sexual assault on his young son through physical contact.

The victim corroborated the incident during questioning, recounting how he had accompanied his teacher to a shopping mall with his parents' consent. It was there, in the mall's parking lot, that the teacher subjected him to molestation.

Confronted with the weight of the evidence, the defendant admitted to the allegations during subsequent interrogations. Consequently, he was detained.

The findings aligned with the victim's statements and the defendant's own confession. While the forensic evidence indicated the occurrence of sexual assault, there was no evidence of full sexual intercourse between the defendant and the victim.

Nevertheless, based on the gathered information, the court made the decision to remand the defendant in custody and referred the case to the High Criminal Court. The charges he faced included sexual assault against the victim, with aggravated circumstances that carried a maximum penalty of life imprisonment.

Simultaneously, alongside this initial report, the Public Prosecution received another complaint detailing the defendant's sexual assault on another student.

Ex-sports club head jailed for embezzlement

TDI | Manama

The Lower Criminal Court has sentenced a former chairman of a sports club accused of embezzlement to six months in prison and ordered him to return BD1,720, the embezzled amount.

The charges against him included embezzlement of funds from the club, intentionally harming the club's interests for personal gain, and seizing funds from one of the entities dealing with the club.

The case originated with a report submitted to the Public Prosecution by the General Sports Authority, detailing the findings of their administrative investigation committee. This report, coupled with the National Audit Office's findings on the club's activities, raised suspicions of criminal offenses committed by the former Chairman (the defendant) during his tenure.

The Public Prosecution promptly launched an investigation, interviewing witnesses and meticulously examining relevant documents. This thorough investigation provided the necessary evidence to establish the defendant's guilt and bring him to justice.

Hungarian businessmen seek Bahrain joint ventures

The Hungarian delegation is headed by Tamas Hovany, Sandor Holbok and Fenyvesi Tamas

Zahra Ayaz
TDI | Manama

A delegation of Hungarian businessmen has expressed keen interest in partnering with Bahraini companies across various sectors.

The proposal, put forth by the Hungarians, entails manufacturing products in Bahrain, opening up new avenues for collaboration and economic growth.

A round table discussion took place at the esteemed Radisson Blu Diplomat, yesterday, under the supervision of Tamas Hovany, Chairman of Bahrain-Hungary Relations.

Hungarian businessmen presented their innovative business ideas, encompassing tire recycling, and medical equipment for kidney transplants, construction firms specializing in bridge and railway construction, and military equipment manufacturers.

In an exclusive interview with The Daily Tribune, Sandor Holbok, one of the businessmen, shared the rationale behind their visit to Bahrain.

Search for new business opportunities

"Historically, Hungary's primary commercial partner has been Germany. However, in recent years, Germany's economic policies have shifted towards Russia and China, leaving Hungary in search of new business opportunities," he explained.

Holbok further elaborated, "Hungary lacks natural resources, energy, metals, and fertile land for agriculture. Previously, aligning with Germany sufficed, as it was a prosperous country. However, due to Germany's changing dynamics, Hungary now seeks to explore the Middle East, particularly the UAE, which is well-known in Hungary for its tourism sector. We are gradually realising the region's vast potential for Hungarian companies."

Fenyvesi Tamas, another Hungarian businessman representing the military, healthcare, and rubber recycling sectors, also expressed his intentions to The Daily Tribune.

Potential partners and investors

"We are actively seeking potential partners and investors in Bahrain. Our expertise lies in hospital construction and maintenance. Presently, we have an ongoing tender in Algeria for the Ministry of Defense, wherein we are constructing 250 patient beds for a military hospital," Tamas stated.

Double blow

Court sentences two men for tax evasion and smuggling

TDT | Manama

The High Criminal Court has sentenced two Asian men to three years in prison each for tax evasion and smuggling.

The court also ordered them to jointly repay BD58,727 in evaded taxes and fined each of them the same amount.

Additionally, both men will be deported from Bahrain after completing their prison sentences. The court also fined one of the men's companies BD352,362 and ordered the confiscation of seized goods.

The case originated with a report from Bahrain Customs officials who suspected a shipment imported by the defendants from an Asian country contained illegal goods.

Upon inspection, authorities discovered "paan," a banned substance, and cigarettes that were not authorized for import. The goods were seized and an investigation was launched.

The Tax Crimes Unit also received a request from the National Bureau for Revenue (NBR) to initiate criminal proceedings against the defendants for evading excise and value-added taxes on the smuggled goods.

The investigation revealed that the defendants and their company were responsible for attempting to smuggle the banned goods and evading a total of BD108,047 in taxes. This led to the case being referred to the court, which ultimately issued the aforementioned verdict.

The defendants and their company were responsible for attempting to smuggle the banned goods and evading a total of BD108,047 in taxes.

Chairman of the Bahrain Chamber, Sameer Nass received the Egyptian Ambassador to Bahrain, Reham Khalil and the Italian Ambassador to Bahrain, Andrea Catalano yesterday at the Chamber's headquarters in the presence of some of the chamber's board members.

Speaking at the meeting, Nass hailed the Bahraini-Egyptian bilateral relations, expressing the Chamber's aspiration to bolstering bilateral trade opportunities through joint ventures. He emphasized the importance of fostering trade exchanges in promising sectors such as agriculture, real estate, and IT.

For her part, the Egyptian ambassador praised the Chamber efforts in supporting economic ties between Bahrain and Egypt, expressing her appreciation for the collaborative efforts that led to increase in trade exchange. She also commended Bahrain's development policy and progress in multiple fields, making it an important investment destination, especially in the commercial and industrial sectors.

Separately, Nass also met the Italian Ambassador and discussed fostering bilateral relations to achieve economic growth, particularly in the fields of pharmaceutical, aluminum, vocational education, and tourism.

For his part, Catalano hailed the Bahrain Chamber for its outstanding efforts in enhancing cooperation and trade investments between both countries, emphasizing the Italian government's commitment to enhancing the bilateral relationship across all levels in order to achieve mutual interests.

ChatGPT faces Austria complaint for 'uncorrectable errors'

AFP | Vienna

A Vienna-based privacy campaign group said yesterday it would file a complaint against ChatGPT in Austria, claiming the "hallucinating" flagship AI tool invents wrong answers, which creator OpenAI cannot correct.

NOYB ("None of Your Business") said there was no way to guarantee the programme provided accurate information. "ChatGPT keeps hallucinating -- and not even OpenAI can stop it," the group said in a statement.

The company has openly acknowledged it cannot correct inaccurate information produced by its generative AI tool and has failed to explain where the data comes from and what ChatGPT stores about individuals, said the group.

NBB supports participation of Smile Society in Bahrain Comic Con

TDT | Manama

The National Bank of Bahrain (NBB) recently supported the participation of Smile Society in this year's Bahrain Comic Con, a prominent local charity supporting children battling cancer.

Held under the esteemed patronage of His Highness Sheikh Khaled Bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the event took place on 26th and 27th April at the Bahrain International Circuit.

This initiative falls under NBB's Donations and Contributions programme, specifically the National Initiatives - Equal Opportunities pillar, which focuses on supporting and empowering various segments of the community.

As part of its commitment to social responsibility, the Bank hosted 40 courageous young fighters, each accompanied by a parent or guardian, for an uplifting experience at the Comic Con.

To ensure a memorable event for the young guests, NBB secured 40 Special VIP passes, granting exclusive privileges and access to all attractions of the two-day event. Each child was provided with a custom lanyard emblazoned with the word "Hero" to remind them of their inner strength and resilience in their ongoing battles.

NBB's support to Smile Society's participation in the Bahrain Comic Con, exemplifies the Bank's dedication to supporting the community and creating a positive impact on the lives of those who need it the most.

GPIC's Chairman inaugurates solar energy project in ground-breaking renewable energy initiative

TDT | Manama

Engineer Kamal bin Ahmed Mohammed, Chairman of GPIC's Board of Directors, inaugurated the company's Solar Energy project yesterday.

The project is the company's latest milestone in energy sustainability, and is within the company's commitment to the use of renewable energy sources, to help preserve the environment and protect it from pollutants.

The project is part of the company's wider strategy to reduce its carbon footprint and is in support of the Kingdom's carbon neutrality aspirations.

The new project was established by installing solar panels on the roof of the employee car park to make the most of the Kingdom's pleasant weather conditions and as an abundant renewable energy resource, which is an important step on its path to sustainability.

During the official opening of the project, which was held in the presence of Chief Executive Officer, Engineer Yasser Abdulrahman Alabbasi, members of the executive management and senior officials of the company, the Chairman commended the efforts of those involved who made this green project a reality, and in support of the vision of the Kingdom of Bahrain for a sustainable future.

He added that the new solar energy system will contribute to the production of approximately 2,900 kilowatts per hour per day, which will both save energy and contribute to the preservation of the environment.

In response, Engineer Alabbasi expressed the management's ambitions to implement the company's new 2040 Strategic Plan, which was developed by the Board of Directors and aims to gradually shift towards alternative energy sources. The company is also keen, he added, to investigate ways to expand this project in the future to produce more green energy, and protect the environment.

The CEO continued that the new solar energy system was within the roof structures of the employee parking area, and was installed by one of Bahrain's leading companies specializing in renewable energy systems.

It is hoped that the annual energy production will reach a total of 1,072 megawatt-hours per year, which will play an influential role in the company's energy strategy.

Myanmar records hottest ever April temperature of 48.2C
Myanmar recorded its hottest ever April temperature of 48.2 degrees Celsius (118.76 Fahrenheit), authorities said yesterday, as the Southeast Asian nation bakes in a heatwave. The mercury hit 48.2C in the town of Chauk in central Myanmar's Magway region on Sunday, according to a statement from the country's weather office, the highest temperature seen anywhere in Myanmar in April since records began 56 years ago. The same day temperatures hit 40C in commercial hub Yangon and 44C in the second city of Mandalay, the weather office said.

A New Zealand judge today adjourned the trial of a South Korean woman accused of killing her two children and stashing their bodies in suitcases, with a new date yet to be decided. Hakyung Lee was extradited from Seoul in 2022 after the remains of her children, both aged under 10, were discovered in suitcases that had been left at a storage unit in south Auckland. The bodies were found after an unsuspecting family bought the contents of a unit in an online auction of abandoned goods from the storage facility.

Three Venezuela opposition activists arrested after Machado rally
Three Venezuelan activists have been arrested after participating in a campaign rally with opposition leader Maria Corina Machado, her party said Sunday, adding to growing concern over a crackdown on dissent by President Nicolas Maduro's government ahead of the July 28 election. Ambar Marquez and Victor Castillo, members of Machado's campaign team in the state of Portuguesa, were arrested on Sunday, a day after opposition activist Oscar Castaneda was also detained - without comment from authorities. All three had spoken at a rally led by Machado in Portuguesa on Saturday, and add to a growing list of opposition activists detained this year.

At least 23 people died and more than a dozen were injured when a bus plunged into a ravine from a mountain road in northern Peru, local authorities said yesterday. Local official Olga Bobadilla told RPP radio the incident late Sunday happened on a potholed dirt road in the Andean region of Cajamarca, "and the bus fell into an abyss" some 200 meters (some 650 feet) deep. The bus with more than 50 passengers ended up on the edge of a river, and some of those on board were swept away by the water, municipal official Jaime Herrera said.

Ecuador taking Mexico to court over asylum for ex-VP

Jorge Glas
AFP | Quito

Ecuador yesterday took Mexico to the International Court of Justice (ICJ) for granting asylum to graft-accused former vice president Jorge Glas, who Quito captured in a controversial embassy raid. The South American country filed a case yesterday with the court in The Hague "for Mexico's violations of a series of international obligations" for granting Glas asylum at its embassy in Quito, the foreign ministry said in a statement. Ecuadoran security forces stormed the Mexican embassy on April 5 to arrest Glas, who is wanted on corruption charges dating from his time in office from 2013 to 2017. The rare incursion on diplomatic territory sparked an international outcry and led Mexico to break ties with Ecuador, pulling its diplo-

Rising tensions at Columbia as students defy demands to clear protest camp

● Around 275 arrests made across US campuses over the weekend
● Tensions rise as free speech clashes with claims of anti-Semitism

Pro-Palestinian encampment at the Columbia University

Student demonstrators at Columbia University yesterday faced an ultimatum to disperse or be suspended, as tensions rose on the campus at the epicenter of pro-Palestinian protests across US colleges. Students pushed back, vowing to defend their camp on the New York institution's main lawn, despite the threat of suspensions and disciplinary action from the college. As of midday only students with university ID cards were free to walk onto campus, AFP observed. Columbia University classics professor Joseph Howley told AFP the school's statement yesterday amounted to yielding to outside political pressure. He said Columbia is "affirming the false premise that the mere presence of political speech on behalf of Palestine is a threat to Jews like myself." He called such a position "absurd and dangerous." Protests against the Gaza war, with its high civilian death toll among Palestinian civilians, have posed a challenge to university administrators trying to balance free speech rights with complaints that the rallies have veered into anti-Semitism and hate speech. For almost two weeks now a

Over 1,000 students have been arrested across the campuses of elite US universities in recent weeks but the protests show little sign of ending, with demonstrators vowing to continue until their demands for US educational bodies to disentangle from the conflict are met waive of protests against Israel's war in Gaza has swept across US university campuses, coast to coast, after beginning at Columbia. Around 100 protesters were arrested there April 18. Footage of police in riot gear and summoned by university officials to break up rallies have been viewed around the world, recalling the protest movement that erupted during the Vietnam war. At University of California, Los Angeles skirmishes broke out Sunday between pro-Palestinian protesters and supporters of Israel. These nationwide rallies have reignited debate on freedom of expression, anti-Zionism and what kind of language or behavior amount to being anti-Semitic. "Many of our Jewish students, and other students as well, have found the atmosphere intolerable in recent weeks. Many have left campus, and that is a tragedy," said Columbia University president Minouche Shafiq in a statement announcing talks had broken down. "Anti-Semitic language and actions are unacceptable and calls for violence are simply abhorrent. "One group's rights to express their views cannot come at the expense of another group's right to speak, teach, and learn." Protest organizers deny accusations of anti-Semitism, arguing that their actions are aimed at the Israeli government and its prosecution of the conflict in Gaza. They also insist the more threatening incidents have been engineered by non-student agitators.

Dozens killed as dam bursts in flood-hit Kenya

AFP | Nairobi

Residents of Mathare slum use the wall to cross a flooded school field

At least 45 people died when a makeshift dam burst its banks near a town in Kenya's Rift Valley in the early hours of yesterday, police said, as torrential rains and floods battered the country. The disaster raises the total death toll over the March-May wet season in Kenya to more than 120 as heavier than usual rainfall pounds East Africa, compounded by the El Nino weather pattern. Residents said the accident occurred in the dead of night near Mai Mahiu, in Nakuru county, sending water gushing down a hill and engulfing everything in its path. The deluge cut off a road, uprooted trees, washed away homes and sent vehicles flying. "We heard what sounded like an earthquake and roars like a moving train," said Margaret Wangechi, a 52-year-old teacher. A senior officer at Nakuru County police headquarters told AFP by phone that 45 bodies had been recovered so far, while Nakuru governor Susan Kihika said 110 people were being treated in hospital. Rescuers were digging through the debris, using hoses and in some cases just their bare hands in a desperate search for survivors. "We collected some of the bodies held by trees and we don't know how many are under the mud," Stephen Njihia Njoroge, a local resident in-

Flash floods have submerged roads and neighbourhoods, leading to the displacement of more than 130,000 people across 24,000 households, many of them in the capital Nairobi involved in the emergency efforts, said. The disaster occurred at Old Kijabe dam, a hillside barrier formed naturally over decades after railway construction work by Kenya's former British colonial rulers.

The Red Cross has set up a desk at a local school to help families find lost relatives. Interior Minister Kithure Kindiki said the government had directed security and intelligence officials to "inspect all public and private dams and water reservoirs within 24 hours... (and) recommend cases (for) compulsory evacuation and temporary resettlement." He also said on X that the authorities would arrest people engaging in "risky behaviour", including motorists attempting dangerous crossings and anyone seeking to transport "passengers across flooded rivers or storm water by unsafe canoes or boats". His comments came after a boat packed with people capsized at the weekend in flooded Tana River county in eastern Kenya, with the Kenya Red Cross saying it had retrieved two bodies and rescued 23 others.

Boy stabbed to death in France in latest teen violence attack

AFP | Paris

A 15-year-old has been stabbed to death in the latest case of teenage violence in France, and the alleged attacker and his mother have been arrested, prosecutors said on Sunday. The country has seen a series of attacks on adolescents by their peers in recent weeks, notably the fatal beating of another 15-year-old called Shemseddine near Paris earlier this month. The latest victim was killed in a brawl in the central French town of Chateaufoux late on Saturday and died in hospital the same evening, regional prosecutor Agnes Auboin said. The suspect, also 15, was arrested around two hours after the fight and taken into custody, Chinese President Xi Jinping is due to make a state visit to France on May 6 and 7, Paris announced yesterday, with war in Ukraine and the Middle East expected to be high on the agenda. The visit to France marks the Chinese leader's first European tour since the coronavirus pandemic. "This visit takes place on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of diplomatic relations between the two countries and follows on from the president's visit to Beijing and Guangzhou in April 2023", President Emmanuel Macron's office said in a statement. Xi is expected to visit Paris as well as the department of Hautes-Pyrenees in southwestern France. The Chinese leader will stop in Hungary on May 8-10, the Central European country's government announced last week.

AFP | Dubai

Emirati-owned Dana Gas has suspended operations at a gas complex in Iraq's autonomous Kurdistan region after a drone strike that killed four people, it said yesterday. The Khor Mor complex owned by the United Arab Emirates firm has been hit several times in recent years, but Friday's attack was the first deadly incident. Four workers died and eight others were wounded when the drone struck a condensate storage tank, Dana Gas said in a statement to the Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange. "Although there was very minor damage to the facilities, for the safety of all our staff and the facilities, we have temporarily suspended production and instituted specific procedural changes," it said. Unclaimed Katyusha rocket attacks have targeted the complex several times in recent years without causing significant damage. Kurdish officials have previously blamed pro-Iran groups for the attacks. Friday's strike disrupted gas supply to the region's power plants, resulting in the loss of 2,500 megawatts (MW) of electricity, local electricity authorities said.

Dozens of tornadoes plow central US, at least 5 killed

AFP | Washington

An exceptional number of tornadoes have ravaged parts of Oklahoma and nearby Great Plains states, leaving at least five dead, authorities and local media said. After 78 tornadoes were reported Friday, mostly in Nebraska and Iowa, a separate weather system Saturday brought 35 tornado reports from northern Texas and Oklahoma to Missouri, the National Weather Service (NWS) said. The storms dumped up to seven inches (18 centimeters) of rain in some places within hours, and meteorologists warned of a continuing danger of extreme weather Sunday, including flash flooding, hail and more tornadoes. A postal truck sat precariously atop wreckage of a building and trees, one video showed, with cinderblocks and wood beams strewn everywhere. Rescue crews went house to house and vehicle to vehicle in search of victims or survivors. Oklahoma Governor Kevin Stitt, speaking Sunday from the hard-hit small town, said four people had been confirmed dead across the state. The damage in Sulphur, where one woman died when the tornado rolled through at nighttime, was the worst he's seen in his six years in office, he told a press conference. "It seems like every business in downtown has been destroyed now," he said, adding "thank goodness... there wasn't a lot of people here at 10:30 at night." At least two people died in the Oklahoma town of Holdenville, the state's Department of Emergency Management (OEM) said, with local media reporting a four-month-old baby was among the victims.

ordinary Mexicans to the forces of poverty and extortion by criminal gangs. There must be "no more hugs for delinquents," said Galvez, 61 -- a reference to left-wing populist President Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador's "hugs not bullets" strategy to tackle violent crime at its roots. Nearly 450,000 people have been murdered since 2006 across Mexico in a spiral of drug-related violence, making security a top concern for voters. Sheinbaum, a close ally of Lopez Obrador and the favorite to win Mexico's June 2 vote, has vowed she will become "the first woman president of Mexico."

New Horizon School celebrates Eid and Earth Day

TDT | Manama

New Horizon School hosted a vibrant celebration on April 25, 2024, intertwining the joyous occasion of Eid with the imperative message of Earth Day in both Zinj and Suquayya campuses.

The event was a testament to the school's commitment to embracing diversity while nurturing environmental stewardship among its students and faculty in the hues of green.

Under the thoughtful initiative of the school counsellor, a quiz was conducted, engaging participants in an interactive session to test their knowledge about Eid traditions and customs.

Transitioning seamlessly from Eid celebrations to Earth Day initiatives, the event embraced a holistic approach toward fostering a sense of global citizenship. The Earth Day program, under the theme - 'Planet Vs Plastic', commenced with a series of engaging activities and various colourful programs.

In a poignant address, the Principal, Vandana Sateesh, highlighted the significance of Eid celebrations and Earth Day, emphasizing the shared values of compassion, community, and environmental responsibility.

Students and teachers alike actively participated in a range of Earth Day-themed programs, exemplifying the power of collective responsibility to protect our planet.

Learning without books - 'Exploring skills at NMS'

TDT | Manama

The Kindergarten section of New Millennium School organised a special day for the students aptly called "Exploring skills @ NMS", on 24th April. No books or notebooks were used and the entire teaching-learning process was activity based.

The day was dedicated to exploring the innate talents of the kindergarten students through different activities and games. The students were given special instructions "not to carry any books to school" as the focus of the day was on guiding the young Kindergartners to explore their skills and acquire the soft skills like teamwork, creativity, cooperation, leadership, speaking skills etc.

Students explored their innate potential and skill through activities like build a word activity, treasure hunt for shapes, nature walk, story narration sessions, puppet show, yoga and meditation, aerobics. The entire initiative focused on promoting a holistic and skill-based approach to learning by equipping students with essential competencies from an early age.

Principal Arun Kumar Sharma, Chairman Dr Ravi Pillai, and Managing Director Geetha Pillai complimented the teachers and the students for their active participation.

Nadal keeps his clay dream alive as he battles past Cachin

Rafael Nadal beats Pedro Cachin in three-hour battle, advances to last 16 in Madrid Open

● Nadal gifts match shirt to opponent Cachin as a memento

AFP | Madrid

Rafael Nadal said he is doing his best to “keep dreaming” after he extended his stay at the Madrid Open by winning a three-hour tussle with Argentina’s Pedro Cachin 6-1, 6-7 (5/7), 6-3 yesterday.

Contesting his home tournament one last time before retirement, the five-time champion exchanged some warm words with Cachin at the net and gave the world number 91 a match shirt as a memento.

Nadal’s reward is a last-16

roller-coaster victory.

“Now I’m enjoying. Let’s see how I wake up tomorrow. Playing at home means everything to me, just try my best to keep dreaming.”

Since the start of the 2005 season, Nadal has lost just once in 163 matches against players ranked outside the top 50 on clay.

Since 2005, Nadal has lost only once in 163 matches against players ranked outside the top 50 on clay

Cachin’s two wins in Madrid this week were his first of the season, as he entered the tournament with zero wins from 11 matches contested in 2024. But those numbers do not reflect the level showcased by the 29-year-old, who saved nine out of 18 break points against Nadal, and pushed the 22-time major champion to his limits.

In a dominant first set, Nadal fired 14 winners and made just nine unforced errors to take the lead in 47 minutes.

He recovered from a double-break deficit in the second set to force a tiebreak but couldn’t hold off another surge from Cachin, who converted his first chance to level the match and take it into a decider.

Nadal had two chances to go up a double break early in the final set but Cachin side-stepped both to hold and soon evened up the score at 2-2. The Argentine could not hold his level though as Nadal found an opening once again and this time did not flinch, storming through to the fourth round on Cachin’s 41st unforced error of the match.

Action heats up on Day 13 of Inter-Hotel Charity Tournament

Day 13 of the Ritz-Carlton Bahrain Inter-Hotel Charity Cricket Tournament showcased thrilling matches and exceptional performances as teams battled it out on the field.

In Match 1, Domain Bahrain B defeated Vida Beach Resort by 23 runs, with Prashath Alwala named Man of the Match for his impressive performance.

Jaw Resort won by walkover against Le Meridien Bahrain in Match 2, while Marriott Executive Apartments & Residence Inn beat Movenpick Bahrain by

Mohammed Younis (Lagoona Resort) receiving “Man of the Match” certificate from Sara Hishma (Marketing Specialist, Lagoona Resort Bahrain)

42 runs in Match 3, with Hamza Khan named Man of the Match for his exceptional skills.

Lagoona Resort A won a convincing match against Raffles Al Areen by 50 runs in Match 4, with Mohammed Younis named Man of the Match for his outstanding gameplay.

Sofitel Bahrain won a thrilling match against Lagoona Resort B by 2 wickets in Match 5, with Mohammed Said named Man of the Match for his crucial contribution.

These wins have set the stage for an exciting conclusion to the tournament, with teams fighting for the top spot.

Ake confident Man City can overhaul Arsenal in title race

AFP | London

Nathan Ake is confident Manchester City will hold their nerve to overhaul Arsenal in the tension-filled Premier League title race.

City closed the gap on leaders Arsenal to one point with a 2-0 win at Nottingham Forest thanks to goals from Josko Gvardiol and Erling Haaland on Sunday.

But the Gunners can reopen a four-point lead over City if they beat Bournemouth on Saturday, before the champions return to action at home to Wolves later the same day.

Although some believe having to come from behind in a title race is more mentally demanding, City defender Ake believes the advantage is with his team.

While Arsenal hold pole position at present, Pep Guardiola’s side know they will be champions for an unprecedented fourth successive season if they win their last five games.

“For me it doesn’t matter really,” Ake said. “It’s in our hands so we’re not depending on what they do.

“That’s the difference from last year, we were still depending on what they were doing.

“This season it’s in our hands. The only thing we have to do is focus on the next one. It’s so close but it’s also so far away.

“It’s about what we do now. At the moment it’s going well but we know what we have to do in the end -- win four games and we can be champions again.”

While Ake has his eyes on the prize, Arsenal goalkeeper David Raya has urged his team to stay focused on their own job and ignore City’s run-in.

Jabeur wants ‘more respect’ for women after reaching Madrid quarters

AFP | Madrid

Tunisian tennis star Ons Jabeur yesterday called out organisers of European tournaments for failing to “respect” women players by giving preferential treatment to men at combined events after she swept into the quarter-finals of the Madrid Open.

Jabeur dismissed ninth-seeded Jelena Ostapenko 6-0, 6-4 to reach the last eight along with top seed Iga Swiatek who eased past home favourite Sara Sorribes Tormo 6-1, 6-0.

But Jabeur, the 2022 Madrid champion, later took a swipe at tournament organisers, telling reporters she believes tennis still has a way to go to achieve gender equality, despite it being the leader in women’s sport.

Tunisia’s Ons Jabeur returns a ball to Latvia’s Jelena Ostapenko

“Definitely tennis is a sport that I’m proud to play in as a woman,” said the world number nine, who next plays either Coco Gauff or Madison Keys for a place in the semi-finals.

“But I feel like we have a long way, especially here in Madrid and in Rome, in Europe in general. I feel like they need to respect women more and they need to respect how we are playing.”

Sharing examples from her personal experiences at events, Jabeur said women players were not given the same access to practice courts as the men, and noted how WTA matches were not shown on TV as frequently as ATP matches.

“The way they treat women here and men, they’re completely different. Maybe people from outside, they don’t see it. I’m definitely one of the people that I want to speak up,” she added.

“Here in Spain, I would love to go to the hotel and open the TV and see a woman’s tennis match.

“I haven’t seen once one tennis match of a woman. Obviously, I understand there are a lot of Spanish (male players) playing, but asking for one match? Even the female Spanish (players) they are not even showing.

Salt, Chakravarthy help Kolkata hammer Delhi in heatwave-hit IPL

Phil Salt's aggressive batting and Varun Chakravarthy's spin secure a comfortable victory for Kolkata Knight Riders

● Kolkata move closer to IPL playoffs with sixth win

AFP | Kolkata

Phil Salt's attacking 68 and bowling figures of 3-16 by Varun Chakravarthy helped Kolkata Knight Riders hammer Delhi Capitals by seven wickets at a hot and humid Eden Gardens in the IPL yesterday.

Chakravarthy, a mystery spinner, led Kolkata's disciplined bowling to restrict Delhi to 153-9 as players, who remained drenched in sweat, and fans braved the intense heat in the colonial-era capital.

Players from all the 10 IPL teams are keen to impress their national selectors with just one day left for countries to name their teams for the T20 World Cup in June.

The in-form Salt, an England wicketkeeper-batsman, led the chase with an opening stand of

"It is high-risk but it is also about putting the odds in your favour and not taking the risks you don't want to," Salt said of his attacking game.

"You just have to keep backing yourself and keep taking the right options."

The mercury in the afternoon soared above 41 degrees Celsius (106 degrees Fahrenheit) for the third time this month, forcing the normally bustling streets to stay empty at noon.

But the sports-mad city witnessed a near-packed house at the 66,000 capacity stadium for the evening game and their home team did not disappoint with their sixth win in nine

Most of India's eastern states and southern peninsula have remained under government heatwave alerts since last week, with relief not expected for several more days.

"That is part and parcel of cricket. We have a long break ahead, where we can learn from our mistakes."

Salt, who moved into the top five batsmen this IPL season with 392 runs, put the chase on track along with fellow opener Narine as the two clobbered 23 runs off the first over from Liz-aad Williams.

He reached his fourth half-century of the season in 26 balls with a six off Khaleel Ahmed but fell to spinner Axar Patel after his 33-ball knock laced with seven fours and five sixes.

Skipper Shreyas Iyer, who made 33, and Venkatesh Iyer, who hit the winning six in his 23, steered the team home in an unbeaten stand of 57.

The match was a complete contrast to the previous game at the venue when Punjab Kings chased down an IPL record of 262 on another hot day.

Bayern ready for 'extraordinary' Bellingham, says Tuchel

AFP | Munich

Bayern Munich manager Thomas Tuchel said yesterday his side were ready for the threat posed by "extraordinary" Real Madrid midfielder Jude Bellingham in their Champions League semi-final first leg.

Tuesday's clash at the Allianz Arena between 14-time winners Real and Bayern, with six Champions League titles, is the most played semi-final in the competition's history.

England midfielder Bellingham, still just 20, joined Real Madrid before the start of the season from Bundesliga side Borussia Dortmund.

Bellingham has since be-

come one of Real's most important players and is already considered among the world's best.

He is their top goalscorer in La Liga this season with 17 goals and has also netted four times in the Champions League.

Tuchel said Bellingham was "a key player in a very offensive position" for the Spanish giants. "Jude is extraordinary... He was fantastic here in the Bundesliga, how he progressed shows the level of personality he has, it's only possible with a huge personality," he said.

"Everyone who plays for Madrid plays with the pressure of the shirt. He plays with the pressure to play with this club and all the expectations.

"He handles it like he's never done anything else. But we are well aware of it and will try and find solutions tomorrow (Tuesday)."

Tuchel said Bayern would host not only the Spanish champions elect, but "an aura, a legend that surrounds them".

The coach, who won the Champions League with Chelsea in 2021 having taken Paris Saint-Germain to the final the previous season, said Real were not the only team with experience in the competition.

"Not only me but the team has experience. Right now we have a good mix between anticipation and tension."

Man Utd's Antony fuelled by critics amid difficult season

Manchester United winger Antony says criticism of his spluttering form this season is fuelling his desire to prove his worth at Old Trafford.

Antony scored his first Premier League goal this season in Saturday's 1-1 draw against Burnley.

But United's difficult campaign suffered another blow as the lowly visitors grabbed a late equaliser through Zeki Amdouni.

Signed from Ajax for a fee that could rise to £85 million ($108 million) in 2022, Antony has yet to live up to that hefty price tag and has come in for criticism from fans and pundits.

The 24-year-old has only made 14 league starts this term and is struggling to convince United boss Erik ten Hag to hand him a regular place in the starting line-up.

Despite his issues this term, Antony is convinced he can eventually establish himself as a key figure for United, with the doubters only driving his determination.

"It's been a very tough year for me and the team. The results are not ones we have expected," he said.

"I am someone who takes criticism very well and I want to work on it, and I think we all have to focus on finishing the season the best as we can.

Tearful Thiago Silva to leave Chelsea at end of season

AFP | London

Brazilian defender Thiago Silva will leave Chelsea at the end of the season after a "dream" four-year spell at Stamford Bridge.

Silva announced his farewell in an emotional video message on Chelsea's website.

The 39-year-old centre-back arrived at the Premier League club on a free transfer in August 2020 after leaving Paris Saint-Germain.

He has made 151 appearances in all competitions for the Blues, winning the Champions League, FIFA Club World Cup and the UEFA Super Cup.

"Chelsea means a lot to me. I came here with the intention

Chelsea's Thiago Silva (C) holds his ankle as he sits injured following a foul of only staying for a year and it ended up being four years. Not just for me but for my family, too," Silva said during a tearful goodbye speech. "My sons play for Chelsea so it's a source of great pride to be a part of the Chelsea family. I hope they can continue their careers here at this victorious club that many players wish to be part of.

"I think in everything I did here over the four years, I always gave my all. But unfortunately, everything has a start, a middle and an end."

Silva was a popular figure among Chelsea fans after making an immediate impact in their 2020-21 Champions League-winning campaign, which climaxed with victory over Manchester City in the final in Porto.

The fond feelings are clearly mutual as Silva saluted the fanbase and revealed his intention to return to Chelsea in a different capacity in the future.
