Muharraq Stay in Title Hunt

TDT | Manama

Matchweek 19 of the Nasser bin Hamad Premier League ended in the same dramatic fashion it began, with no shortage of excitement across both fixtures. Muharraq edged Budaiya 1-0, while Riffa produced a thrilling 3-2 win over Al Ahli.

At Bahrain National Stadium, Muharraq continued their strong momentum following last week's King's Cup triumph with a 1-0 win over Budaiya. The Red Wolves created several clear chances in the 1st half, including Abdoukarim Diarra striking the post in the 4th minute after Abdulla Al Khalasi set him up. Algerian forward Sami Frioui was also lively, twice going close, including a close-range header that went over the bar just before halftime.

Muharraq thought they had taken the lead in the 72nd minute when Abdulwahab Al Malood headed home after coming on as a substitute, but the goal was ruled out for offside in the buildup, leading to strong protests from coach Fernando Santos.

The breakthrough finally came in the 79th minute through another substitute, Hussain Abdoukarim. The Bahraini forward made an immediate impact, meeting a well-delivered cross from Elliot Simoes on the left and directing his header into the corner. The winning goal sparked emotional scenes as players ran towards the stands to celebrate with the fans in attendance.

The win keeps Muharraq second on 46 points, just two behind leaders Al Khaldiya with three games remaining, while Budaiya stay ninth on 21 points.

At Khalifa Sports City, Riffa and Al Ahli produced a five-goal thriller in one of the matches of the season, with Mohamed Mashaan's side eventually prevailing 3-2 despite finishing with ten men.

Riffa struck first in the 30th minute when Ali Madan latched onto a long ball sequence involving Ebrahim Al Khattal and Vinicius Vargas, rounding goalkeeper Sayed Shubbar Alawi before finishing. After a lengthy VAR check for offside, the goal stood. They doubled their lead just before the break when Gabriel Monteiro finished another long-ball move, meeting it cleanly as it bounced off the turf.

Al Ahli responded strongly after the restart. Faisal Hassan pulled one back in the 51st minute with a brilliant solo run past two defenders before placing his shot into the bottom corner. Just six minutes later, Victor Oliveira brought Al Ahli level, reacting quickest in the box after a corner scramble and finding the top corner.

Riffa were reduced to ten men in the 66th minute when Sayed Redha Isa was sent off for a studs-up challenge on Hassan, but despite the setback, they found a late winner in the 89th minute. Samuel Toscas struck the post from a free kick, and Thiago Fernandes reacted quickest to the rebound to seal all three points.

The match ended with further controversy as Al Ahli's Hamza Buihamghet was also sent off for a violent off-the-ball challenge on Fernandes.

Riffa remain third on 40 points, while Al Ahli sit seventh on 23 points.

Bahrain Club Confirm Relegation from NPL

Action from Bahrain Club's last match

TDT | Manama

Bahrain Club were officially relegated from the Nasser bin Hamad Premier League on Tuesday night following their 1-0 defeat to Al Shabab at Bahrain National Stadium.

The result leaves them bottom of the table on seven points, with three matchdays remaining, confirming their drop to the Bahrain First Division.

It marks a disappointing end to the campaign for the side, who struggled for consistency throughout the season. This is Bahrain Club's first relegation since the 2016-17 season, ending their stay in the top flight after nearly a decade.

Head coach Mohamed Al Hayki now faces the task of rebuilding the team ahead of next season, as the club looks to regroup and push for promotion.

Rain washes out second T20 between Bangladesh and New Zealand

AFP | Chattogram

Rain washed out the second T20 international between Bangladesh and New Zealand in Chattogram yesterday, leaving the hosts 1-0 ahead in the three-match series.

Persistent showers throughout the day made play impossible, with the match abandoned without a ball being bowled. Even the toss could not be held.

The Bangladesh Cricket Board said fans who purchased tickets online would be refunded in line with its policy.

PSG hold off Bayern in nine-goal epic

The Champions League Final That Came Too Soon

Hussain Almaskati
TDT | Manama

Every so often, football produces a match that reminds us why it is called "the beautiful game". Paris Saint-Germain's 5-4 victory over Bayern Munich in the Champions League semi-final first leg belonged firmly in that category, a game that felt less like a structured contest and more like two elite sides refusing to surrender even a moment of control.

From the first whistle at the Parc des Princes, the tone was unmistakable. Both teams pressed high, attacked early, and left space behind them that invited chaos. It wasn't caution that shaped the opening exchanges, but a shared conviction that attacking football would decide the night.

Bayern struck first in the 17th minute when Harry Kane converted a penalty after PSG were punished for a defensive lapse. The lead, however, lasted only seven minutes. Khvicha Kvaratskhelia drifted inside, skipped past his marker, and curled a precise finish into the bottom corner to level the score at 1-1.

The game barely settled before turning again. João Neves put PSG ahead less than ten minutes later, rising to meet a corner with a well-placed header to make it 2-1. Bayern responded in the 41st minute through Michael Olise, who was allowed to carry the ball to the edge of the box before unleashing a superb finish to bring it back to 2-2.

Just before half-time, the Parisians struck again. Ousmane

Dembélé converted from the penalty spot to send the hosts into the break leading 3-2 in a match that already felt out of control.

If the first half was open, the second dissolved into something closer to abandonment. PSG tore through Bayern's high line on the counterattack, and Kvaratskhelia added his second in the 56th minute, smashing home after another rapid transition to make it 4-2. Six minutes later, Dembélé struck again. Played in behind, he drifted into the box and fired a low finish inside the left-hand post to extend it to 5-2.

By then, the game appeared decided, but the Germans refused to fade. Dayot Upamecano pulled one back in the 65th minute, attacking a set piece and heading in at the back post to make it 5-3. Three minutes later, Luis Díaz made it 5-4, finishing a flowing move that began with a superb long pass from Harry Kane. The Colombian took two deft touches to beat his marker before slotting home — his fourth consecutive Champions League goal.

From there, the remaining minutes were goalless. It was a frantic conclusion that had barely given anyone inside the stadium time to breathe all night.

After the match, reactions matched the scale of what had unfolded. Luis Enrique called it one of the most intense games of his career. Meanwhile, analysts praised the spectacle but questioned the defensive structure on both sides, noting how easily elite attacking phases were converted into goals.

The French side will now take a narrow advantage to Munich, but the tie is far from settled. After ninety minutes of chaos, the return leg carries one clear expectation: whatever happens next, it will not be quiet.
