COVID-19 jabs ready for Bahrainis in Jordan

TDT | Amman

Bahraini citizens in Jordan will start receiving their COVID-19 jabs soon, for which the Bahraini envoy to Jordan had signed a deal in Amman.

Ahmed bin Yousef Al-Ruwaie said he had signed an agreement with Abdali Hospital in Amman for starting the vaccination process for Bahraini citizens.

The move is as per the directives of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince and Prime Minister, to vaccinate Bahraini citizens abroad. Al-Ruwaie called on Bahraini citizens in Jordan who hadn’t taken their vaccines to get inoculated immediately.

During the 12th International Economic Summit in Kazan

Nass: The private sector is keen on mirroring the high-level diplomatic tie between Bahrain and Russia

On the sidelines of the 12th International Economic Summit being held in Kazan- the capital city of Tatarstan of the Russian Federation, chairman of the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry Sameer Nass met the President of the Republic of Tatarstan Rustam Minnikhanov. The President expressed pride in the growing relation between the Kingdom of Bahrain and the Russian Federation, and expressed confidence in the upward trajectory of business and trade. Mr. Nass reiterated pride in the Bahraini-Russian tie, and the high-level cooperation at all fields, expressing the keenness of the Bahraini private sector in reinforcing business cooperation and stepping-up the volume of trade and investments, while voicing optimism in the prospective outcomes of the recently signed MoUs between the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry and its counterpart from Tatarstan and the International Association of Islamic Business, ushering way to making Bahrain the marketing arm for Russian products in the GCC and North Africa.

Mr. Nass accompanied President Rustam Minnikhanov in a tour in Kazan Expo-held as part of the summit.

Mr. Nass also met with the UAE Minister of State for Foreign Trade H.E Dr. Thani bin Ahmed Al Zeyoudi, and stressed on consolidating efforts to achieve the common goals of the GCC member countries and the aspirations of its leaders and people. He underlined the importance of intensifying efforts to achieve food and drug security.

As part of the participation of Bahrain Chamber’s delegation in the 12th International Economic Summit, board member Mr. Ahmed Al Saloom took part in a session themed “Russian-African Partnerships: A Modern Trajectory of Economic Cooperation.” Mr. Al Saloom touched upon the long-standing relation between the Kingdom of Bahrain and the Russian Federation, particularly during the prosperous era of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa

Al Khalifa. He voiced pride in the cooperation between Bahrain sovereign wealth fund “Mumtalakat”, Russia’s sovereign wealth fund “the Russian Direct Investment Fund (RDIF)”, and Binnopharm Group on establishing a new vaccine production facility in the Kingdom of Bahrain to manufacture and distribute the Sputnik V COVID-19 vaccine across the GCC and MENA region, which reflects the depth of cooperation and serves the common interest of both friendly countries. Mr. Al Saloom also spoke about the growing business relations, and the pivotal role of Bahrain-Russia Joint Business Council. From his side the Chamber’s member of the Bureau Mr. Bassim Al Saie took part in a session titled “International Forum of Young Leaders” in which he shared the experience of the 29th board of directors in transforming the chamber, bolstering its role in economic decisions, and embracing young business owners and entrepreneurs. He underlined the necessity of the Chamber as body that represents the private sector and shed light on the importance of having a clear vision, upgrading operations, keeping abreast of technological advancements, and opening communication with all members in a bid to succeed in empowering the private sector and enhancing its contribution to economic development alongside its public sector.
