Bahrain pays homage to late Kuwaiti Amir

Three-day mourning announced

TDT | Manama

Bahrain expressed deep sorrow over the death yesterday of the Amir of Kuwait, His Highness Shaikh Sabah Al Ahmed Al Jabir Al Sabah.

Upon the order of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, an official mourning was announced and flags will be flown at half-mast in the Kingdom for three days.

The royal leadership, under HM King Hamad, His Royal Highness the Prime Minister Prince Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa, and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Crown Prince, Deputy Supreme Commander and First Deputy Prime Minister, offered sincere condolences to Kuwait, Al Sabah family, and the Kuwaiti people.

They paid homage to the deceased, hailing his legacy, achievements and endeavours exerted to best serve his country, the Arab and Islamic nations, and the world.

The Royal Court, upon an order from His Majesty King Hamad, mourned the late Amir.

"He was a wise leader who devoted his life to serving his people and nation and to serving humanity. We express our sincere condolences to our brothers, the honorable Al Sabah family and the dear people of Kuwait," the statement said.

HRH the Premier, in a statement, said the Arab and Islamic nations lost, with his death, a wise leader who spearheaded his country's development and progress, contributed to strengthening the march of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC), and strongly advocated Arab rights and supported efforts to maintain regional security and stability. HRH the Crown Prince extended his deepest condolences to the people of Kuwait, noting his exemplary humanitarian leadership and noble endeavours.

Other leaders in the Kingdom also extended sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy to Kuwait.

The Shura Council, in a state-
